The Looney Lutherans are coming to Thief River Falls

Kicking off their 22 consecutive season, the Thief River Falls Area Community Theater announces their first show of the 2017: The Looney Lutherans. Two performances are scheduled for Thursday and Friday, May 18 and 19 at the Northland Community and Technical College Theater in Thief River Falls. Curtain time is 7:00 p.m. each evening. Tickets are available at Digikey's East entrance, Pennington Square and Pennington Main in Thief River Falls, and at the door an hour before curtain time each evening.

The Looney Lutherans are a trio of wacky gals on tour promoting their new (fictional) cookbook: USE YOUR FOOD. A GUIDE TO HEALTHY LIVING INSIDE AND OUT, FROM OUR KITCHEN TO YOURS, EAT LIKE A LUTHERAN! Using music, comedy, and some help from the audience, these gals share some age-old wisdom for living a long and healthy life, the Lutheran way. (But you don't have to be Lutheran to love 'em)

The Looney Lutherans are a team of professional actresses who have come together in a fun, interactive, family-friendly show. The idea for the Looney Lutherans was "cooked up" in 2006 when the founding members were appearing in the cast of the hit musical CHURCH BASEMENT LADIES in Plymouth, MN. The demand for charming "home-cooked" humor inspired the ladies to create a brand new comedy act, and the Looney Lutherans were born. The company has since expanded to include additional "Loonies", but all of these talented women have been performing for years as professional actresses, writers, singers, and improvisers. As the Looney Lutherans they have appeared together around the country at County Fairs and Festivals, Mother/Daughter Banquets, Red Hat Gatherings, Hospital Fundraisers, Member and Customer Appreciation Events, and at Women's and Senior Expos. All material is comedic and family friendly.

Performances include a variety of segments on healthy living the Lutheran way, including: the Lutheran "food wheel" (all roads lead to hotdish); a Lutheran rap ("Eat Like a Lutheran"); and Lutheran beauty tips (you, too, can be a SEXY LUTHERAN!)

Other upcoming shows sponsored by the Thief River Falls Area Community Theater are "The Drowsy Chaperone", June 20-24; "The Boys Next Door", July 18-20; "The Lion King KIDS", July 24-26; and "The Sound of Music", August 1-3. For more information, visit www.trfact.org, or follow us on Facebook.

The Looney Lutherans have appeared together in hundreds of shows in North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Arizona, Texas and throughout Minnesota.

The 26th President, Theodore "Teddy" Roosevelt, made a stop in Grygla recently! Stopping in to visit the Grygla K-12 students on Thursday, April 27th, Roosevelt was brought to the school by Dakota Assemblies.

Moorhead Student Receives Air Force Academy Appointment

Congressman Collin Peterson is pleased to announce that Alexander Mehnert, son of Karen and Ralf Mehnert-Meland from Moorhead, Minnesota was accepted as a blue-chip candidate through the U.S. Air Force Academy hockey team. While in high school, Alexander earned a letter in varsity hockey and was captain of the Spuds hockey team. He went on to play Junior hockey with the Fairbanks Ice Dogs in Alaska and most recently played for the Omaha Lancers in Nebraska. It is his sincere desire to attend the Air Force Academy and pursue a vigorous academic course of study while playing for the Falcons. Attending a service Academy requires a minimum of five years of military service following graduation and he fully commits to this responsibility.

"Alexander pursued a military academy nomination through my office and I'm very happy to hear he has been offered an Appointment to the Air Force Academy," said Peterson. "He was an impressive applicant and I look forward to following his time at the Academy."

Eco-friendly Gardening

The word eco-friendly can be used in many areas of our lives: at work, at home, at play.... Being eco-friendly in all these aspects is quite a simple concept with incredible opportunities for creativity. The bottom line is eco-friendly is all about working with nature, not against it.

As gardeners we play an ever increasing unique role in the ongoing pressures within the ecosystem. Eco-gardening has proven to slow the effects of climate change by reducing waste and incorporating varying practices that promote wildlife habitat and renewable energy.

Avoiding waste is one of the primary ways to be eco-friendly. By not wasting water, recycling yard trimming and kitchen plant-based scraps into compost, wisely disposing of plastics and soils bags, and reducing fertilizer and pesticide use.

Earth911.com offers a few simple tips to eco-friendly gardening thus creating a more biodiverse and planet friendly garden.

1) Attract Friendly Bugs
Ladybirds, lacewings, and ground beetles, oh my! Whether you absolutely detest insects or enjoy watching them fly about the garden, the fact of the matter is that while there are plenty of bugs, like greenflies, that can be harmful to plants, there are also beneficial bugs that can help reduce the population of harmful bugs.

2) The Early Bird Catches the Worm

As for the snails, slugs, caterpillars, grubs, and other pests that can destroy your garden, birds can serve as exceptional and natural protectors. Install bird feeders for a variety of birds and nesting boxes to encourage more birds to visit. Using birds and beneficial insects in this way will also help eliminate the need for synthetic insecticides, fungicides, and weed killers that are toxic to the environment.

3) Consider Companion Planting

The most beautiful and healthy gardens are those with a diverse mix of plants. Tall plants can naturally provide shade for more sun-sensitive and shorter plants. You should always take into account what you would like to grow in your garden before you begin to add plants, and once you know this be sure to do your research so that you do not encounter difficulties in growing season.

Below are some great garden combinations to consider, but, again, keep in mind that these do not necessarily all work with each other, only that the individual pairings do.

- Chives & Tomatoes
- Rose & Garlic
- Carrot & Spring Onions
- Cucumber & Radish & Dill
- 4) Set Up a Compost Bin

While you can purchase your own soil from a local gardening or hardware store, compost is the most important supplement you can have in your eco garden's soil. Not only is the process of composting an easy way to give your garden the nutrients it needs to grow, it's also a more satisfying solution for both your wallet and the environment.

5) Reduce, Reuse & Recycle

There are so many ways to reduce the amount of waste you create, from growing your own fruit and vegetables to using your own compost, to only buying recyclable packaging. A large part of reducing waste is to reuse what you already have, such as fencing, vegetable peelings, plant clippings, and even using a water butt to decrease the amount of fresh water you use when looking after the garden.

Theology in the Trenches

By Kathleen Kjolhaug

Buried Barbs

Yard cleaning burst onto the scene as sun melted snow. Into the snowcapped grass I trod as behind the house lay a heap that needed going through, and I was in the mood to tackle it. Broken branches were unearthed, and just beneath them I spied barbed wire.

Dangerous play area, I thought as I began to tug at one piece. Up it came with little effort. Soon another piece was exposed, and another, and so it went for the next hour as I gathered the goods. Someone had obviously cut a larger strand into shorter pieces, and I was able to safely set it aside without having it recoil around me.

When all was done, only a light scratch had drawn blood. With no deep wounds to behold, I was beholding. Grabbing a large plastic bin, I managed to once again move the pile of barbs yet a second time without incident. Proud of myself, I wheeled it round the house and parked it for safe keeping which meant it would soon be part of the scrap metal pile growing near the barn.

I'd been so busy looking down, that by the time the area was reordered, I was able to look up to see yet another puzzling display of disarray. Right above the buried barbs, the nearby tree had grown up, over, and into the shed nearby making memory marks in the form of a good sized hole in the roof. Climbing up the underlying branches of this hidden landmark wreaking havoc, I managed to get a closer look. Sure enough, through the shingles and through the wood beneath them was a limb protruding wildly out of hand.

Later that day as my husband and I gathered for supper, I made mention of the manifestation infesting the shed near our house. "Did you know that the branch of that tree has punched a hole right on top of that shed out back?"

"I haven't gone back there to check things out for a while now, so no, I hadn't noticed that."

Pretty sure the limb on that branch was a solid six inches in diameter so the terminology, "for a while now," was leniently used. Considering we don't use that shed for much these days, I gave him the benefit of the doubt. Now that the barbed wire was no longer lingering as a landmine, the possibility of getting a close up look might come sooner than later...was my hope.

"I'm gonna just chop that whole tree down anyway," he slowly said as he just kept on eating.

Prouder than all get out I'd found the barbs and prouder than a peacock that I was able to point out my discovery came to a screeching halt as I watched him methodically finish his supper. I'd wanted an "OOOHH," minimally an "AAHHH," but truly, in his world it was no big deal...just another day on the farm. And so it goes...

Ephesians 4:15 offers a recap. "Speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of Him who is the head, that is, Christ."

And so I did...speak truth that is. "Honey, I thought you'd be proud I found that wire. I thought you'd like the fact that I wheeled it round back for you to add to your collectables. I thought I not only saved you some work, but helped save you time by cleaning it up!" This hadn't been his perspective. I had simply created more work he hadn't planned on doing that day and his honesty was... well...honest.

"I am so sorry...." was all it took from each of us. We were a united front once again as there is always room to grow and mature in love...in Him. Amen.

Ask a Trooper

by Sgt. Jesse Grabow Minnesota State Patrol

Question: What are the most common vehicle equipment violations you see?

Answer: In my career as a Minnesota State Trooper, I have witnessed and investigated all kinds of common equipment violations.

The most common violations I have seen are:
Window tint violations: No vehicle can have any tint to the front windshield. Passenger cars are limited to 50 percent on all side and rear windows. Pickups, vans, and SUV's are limited to 50 percent on the front side windows. Pickups, vans, and SUV's are not limited on the rear side and rear windows.

Headlight/taillights out: Every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle must be equipped with at least two headlamps and two tail lamps.
Cracked taillight lens/displaying white light to the rear: Vehicles must display red lights visible from a distance of 500 feet to the rear.
Suspended objects from the rearview mirror: Any objects suspended between the driver and the windshield are prohibited. This includes parking and handicap permits. Be sure to take them down when the vehicle is in motion and place it back up when parked.

Cracked windshield: A windshield cracked or discolored to an extent to limit or obstruct proper vision.

Bumper height violations: Bumpers shall not exceed a height of 20 inches on any passenger automobile, station wagon, or 25 inches on any four-wheel drive multipurpose type vehicle.

Loud exhaust: Every motor vehicle shall at all times be equipped with a muffler in good working order which blends the exhaust noise into the overall vehicle noise and no person shall use a muffler cutout. The exhaust system shall not emit or produce a sharp popping or crackling sound.

License plate lights out/plates unreadable: A white light is required for the rear-registration plate and render it legible from a distance of 50 feet to the rear.

Unsecured load: When hauling a load, all driver must securely cover their haul to prevent any leaking, blowing, shifting or dropping. This includes ice/snow coming off a vehicle.

No seatbelt use: Minnesota law states that drivers and passengers in all seating positions must be buckled up or seated in the correct child restraint.

Officers will stop and ticket unbelted drivers or passengers. Seat belts must be worn correctly — low and snug across the hips, and shoulder straps should never be tucked under an arm or behind the back.

No headlight/use in reduced visibility: Headlights must be on at any time from sunset to sunrise, when it is raining, snowing, sleeting, or hailing; and at any other time when visibility is impaired by weather, smoke, and fog or other conditions that inhibit clear visibility.

Other common violations include speeding, no proof of insurance, expired registration, only displaying one Minnesota license plate, distracted driving, which included texting and driving, expired driver's license, driving without a driver's license and crossing over the center and fog lines.

A portion of state statutes were used with permission from the Office of the Revisor of Statutes. If you have any questions concerning traffic related laws or issues in Minnesota, send your questions to Sgt. Jesse Grabow – Minnesota State Patrol at 1000 Highway 10 West, Detroit Lakes, MN 56501. Allis Chalmers

by Eric Mickelson

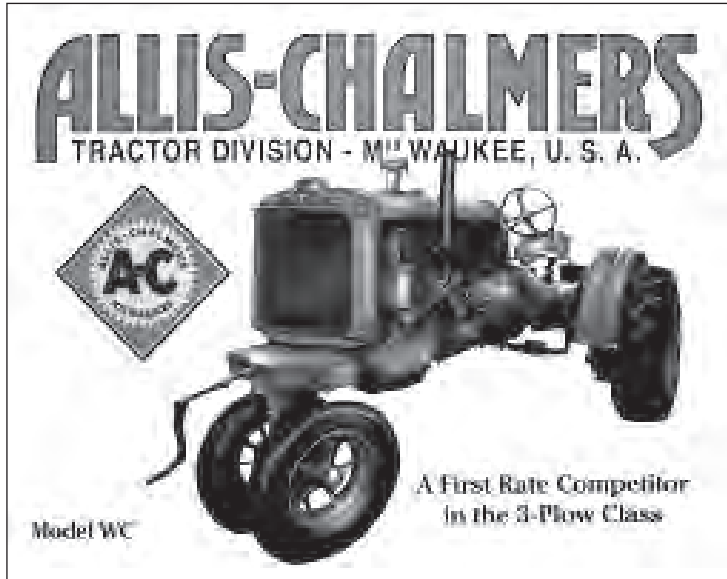

When I was growing up on the farm, west of Oklee, we had all John Deere's except for an H Farmall. Dad told stories of the neighbors farming with Farmalls. Some stories included the Minneapolis-Molines dad and his uncle had used in years past. Even more stories included all the Massey tractors farming around Oklee. Allis Chalmers was somewhat foreign to me. Our neighbor, Walter Pederson did have an RC Allis and I loved tractors so I knew about those orange tractors, but I did not know a lot about them.

Edward P. Allis dabbled in many businesses. In 1861 he purchased Reliance Iron Works renaming it Edward P. Allis and Company. With the demands of the Civil War the company flourished. Edward P. Allis died in 1889, then in 1901 his company merged with Fraser and Chalmers and Allis-Chalmers was born.

The company did have some struggles but to escape financial woes they decided to enter the tractor market. Allis's first few attempts at a tractor were unsuccessful. In 1918 introduced the 15-30. It featured a 4 cylinder, 461 cu. in. engine and weighed over 6000 pounds. It draw back was the selling price $2100! Eventually the 15-30 was changed into the 20-35 by increasing the engine speed. The only problem was that price tag. So Allis went to work. replacing some parts and eliminating others. By 1934 they had dropped the price to under $1000 dollars. Still not as cheap as the Fordson had been, but Allis had made leaps and bounds figuring out how to make a dependable and affordable tractor. This is just what the farmers wanted!

How about a little tractor trivia

1. The 15-30 had its name changed to the 18-30. Why?
A. blue B. red C. green D. orange
2. The 15-30(or 18-30) and the later 20-35 were painted what color?
A. Dearborn, MI B. Milwaukee, WI C. Minneapolis, MN D. Brantsford, ON
3. Allis Chalmers tractor division was headquartered in what city?
A. John Deere B. Rumley C. Case D. Oliver
4. In 1931 Allis Chalmers acquired what tractor company?
A. have a diesel engine B. develop 50 hp C. be equipped with pneumatic rubber tires
5. The Allis Chalmers model U is famous for being the first farm tractor to _____.

Answers 1. Nebraska test showed it had 18 hp. 2. C. green 3. B. Milwaukee 4. B. Rumely 5. C. first to have rubber tires
