2018 RED LAKE COUNTY FAIR RODEO

It was a great weekend for the Red Lake County Fair. Among the activities was the Wojo Rodeo held on Friday night at the South Park (located across the roads from the Oklee pits). A good show was given for the audience attending. The stock for the event was provided by Wojo Rodeo.

Kally Wojo ran the barrels and also helped with the event.

Running barrels was popular for the cowgirls and it was the longest event at the rodeo.

This cowboy was one of the three that successfully wrestled a steer to the ground.

This little guy was not very happy with riding the sheep, but he made it!

Team roping was another part of the Wojo Rodeo on Friday.

Above is Saddle Bronc and to the right is Mini Bronc. It was a challenge for riders to stay on their horse (large or small).

Trey Windhorst from Poplar Bluff, MO was the announcer for the rodeo on Friday night.

Stephen Holecek was the only successful bull rider of the night on Friday.

Johnson Township Board members honored

The Johnson Township Board met at Pioneer Memorial Care Center at Erskine on June 10, 2018 to present plaques to Robert Erlandson and Glenn Bergerson for their years of serving as Board Members for Johnson Township.

Robert Erlandson served as treasurer from 1979-2016 and Glenn Bergerson served as Supervisor and Chairman from 1991-2018.

Robert resides at Pioneer Memorial Care Center and Glenn lives at home in rural Gully. Present and past board members enjoyed a lunch in the afternoon and talked about years of checking roads and having meetings at the town hall or even meeting in the homes during the winter months.

It was a good time for all sharing memories.

Glenn Bergerson presented Robert Erlandson his plaque since Glenn was Chairman yet in 2016. Stanley Solheim, the present chairman, presented Glenn Bergerson his plaque from retiring in March 2018.

Johnson Township town board members who received a Thank You for their many years of service were Glenn Bergerson and Robert Erlandson. It was written on the cake as well. Article written and photos provided by Thomas Erlandson.

My Younger Days

Norris Syverson, a man with many memories, came to us at Richards Publishing and asked if we could make a book for him. He wrote the stories, and Carolyn (Finseth) Nelson typed what he wrote. It has been quite a journey through life for Norris and being the man that he is, he wants to share with folks his memories of days gone by. Over 200 pages! Over 100 pictures! Over 500 different topics! Some include: Drought Years; Sheep Shearing; Old Fashioned Haying; Our Buggy Rides.

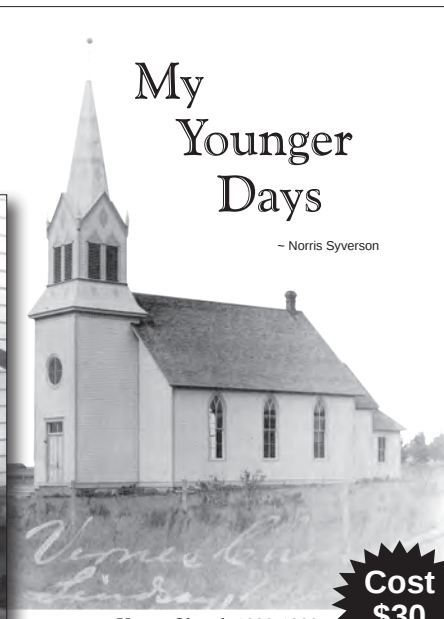

Here is just an excerpt from his first page...

I was born in the front room of the house I now live in on December 24, 1933. This part of the house is log. It was covered with some kind of pressed green paper about 1/8th of an inch thick, now it is covered with 1/2 inch thick celotex.

This house had only two rooms downstairs, each one about 12 feet by 14 feet, with low ceilings about 7 1/2 feet high....There were 5 boys and 5 girls aging from 1 year to 16 years old, plus Ma and Pa living in this small house at that time....

"I hope every reader will seek the Lord and make sure you have the Lord Jesus deep in your heart for this is the Will of God."

Thank you, Norris Syverson

Ask a Trooper

by Sgt. Jesse Grabow Minnesota State Patrol

Q u e s - tion: Can I be stopped by law enforcement if the third brake light on the rear dash goes out and both brake lights still work?

Answer: Yes you can. Brake lights are very important on any vehicle as they allow other motorists know when you slowing and stopping. Under Minnesota law, a vehicle equipped with a third brake light that is not working would be in violation of the statute.

Minnesota statute says that when a vehicle is equipped with stop lamps or signal lamps, such lamps shall at all times be maintained in good working condition.

For your safety, the safety of your passengers and the motor-ists around you, I encourage you to check your brake lights, head lights and turn signals often.

A portion of state statutes were used with permission from the Office of the Revisor of Statutes. If you have any questions concerning traffic related laws or issues in Minnesota, send your questions to Trp. Jesse Grabow – Minnesota State Patrol at 1000 Highway 10 West, Detroit Lakes, MN 56501-2205. (You can follow him on Twitter @MSPPIO_NW or reach him at, jesse.grabow@state.mn.us).

Haying Time, Oh and a 450 Farmall

By Auctioneer Eric W.Mickelson

Haying season is by far my favorite season on the farm. Raking hay was my first job on the farm that I could do by myself. I spent quite a bit of time on the 1942 B John Deere and the International 4 bar, 4 rubber wheeled side delivery rake. I wish I could take it for a round or two right now. Today's big haybines and discbines are awesome pieces of equipment. I could use one....someday. But haying still means mowing and raking to me. Probably because of all the fun I had on that B John Deere and IH rake!

Another favorite of mine is too see people working in the field with there older tractors. When ever we go for a drive or go on vacation if I see an older tractor working away i drive slow and often take some pictures. Just last fall as I was driving home from work I saw a little S Case out raking some 2nd crop hay. I knew the owner and stopped to take a picture. It became my article for the next weeks tractor trivia, the S Case!

Luckily as I was coming home from Oklee the other day I spied a tractor at work raking hay.

Guess what I had to stop and take a picture. A 450 Farmall raking some nice green hay! It was neighbor George Olson. I pulled over to take my picture and George jumped off the 450 and ran over to the fence line and stopped to talk for a while. It reminded me of some of the old advertising literature where it shows a couple farmers leaning over the fence, and in the background would be a new H Farmall or B John Deere sitting in the background. While I got to live that picture too, only it is about 70 years later! So thanks for the fun George. If you see someone working in the field and you have the time, stop and lean over the fence, you won't be sorry you did!

How about a little tractor trivia!

1. What years were the 450 Farmall manufactured?

A) 1953-1955 B) 1955-1959 C) 1956-1958 D) 1959-1960

2. What is a W-450?

3. What model came before the 450?

A) Model M B) Model 400 C) Model 350 D) Model 560

4. What model did International consider the model that replaced the 450?

A) Model M B) Model 400 C) Model 350 D) Model 560

5. How many speeds does a Farmall 450 have, including the TA?

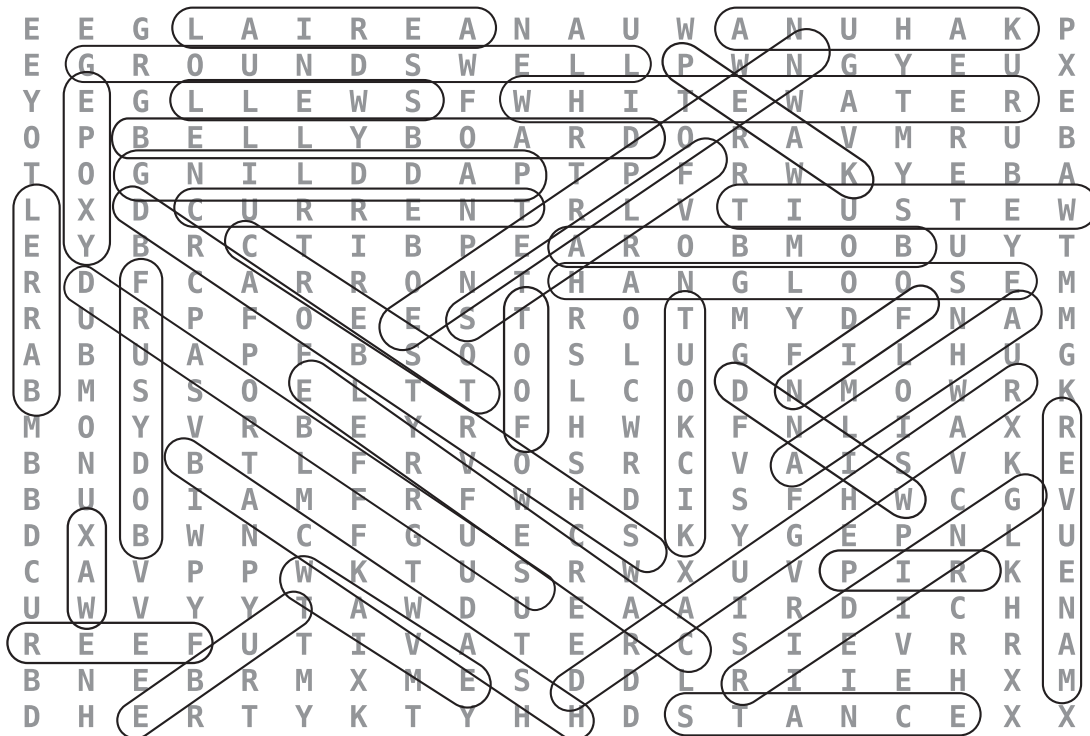

A) 4 forward 1 rev. B) 8 forward 2 rev. C) 5 forward 1 rev D) 10 forward 2 rev

Answers: 1. C. 1956-1958 2. Standard tread model 450 3. B. 400 4. D. 560 5. D. 10/2

Theology in the Trenches

By Kathleen Kjolhaug

What If?

What if it is true that what He asks is extremely hard for you?

What if it's true that what He asks is something you think you can't do?

You cringe at the thought because it's well known that it wasn't the plan you desired. The dejected in life have come to your door and you're everything but inspired.

The script within did not include the messes that others did make.

Your heart desired a bit smoother sailing and not some-one else's mistakes.

The messy of messes came right in that door as you fought hard to keep it out.

You hadn't a clue of what to do as you watched in unfurl all about.

As the winds did blow, the clouds rolled in and your vision was all but obscured.

For dark they appeared billowing here and there...as your hope did turn into fear.

Clinging to prayer, to the ears that would listen, your heartbeat was not recognized.

Rapidly palpitating, rapidly breathing as each thought seemed over-sized.

Anger erupted and confession ensued that it truly was too much for you.

That's when it happened; He took it all over appearing like morning dew.

You leaned in to feel the beat of His heart and knew this was just the beginning.

He let it be known you weren't alone as He, too, was the far reaching ending.

The verses came swiftly unfolding you deeply as you poured out all of your woe.

He not only heard you but gathered you up to shed Light on this world below.

My ways are higher, much higher than yours as you celebrate life that's been hewn.

I've got this, you see; please trust Me with this, cause from your elevation it's skewed.

If mountains and valleys were turned upside down that's exactly the view that's real.

Up on the peaks of the mountains high, it's easy to slide back down...that's the deal.

The valleys that look so steeply ravened...well, the work to get out...it renews.

It's the climb, the ascent that brings on the view that will be embedded in you.

I know you my child, and I know your needs so trust me along this path's journey.

I'm building and shaping...the texture brings beauty please know that this is the key.

When you've come to the end of let's pretend and you desire to get real with Me.

I will hear you say, "Oh Lordy, I cannot"... and those are true words that will please.

And ever so gently that's when you'll hear that "It's not too much for Me." Amen.

Charles graduated from Madison East High School in 1948. He then went on to St. Olaf College in Northfield and graduated in 1952. Following college Charles felt called to the ministry and enrolled at Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, graduating in 1956.

While attending the seminary Charles met Marlys Ringdahl on a blind date. They were married at Boe Memorial Chapel at St. Olaf College on October 2, 1954 and shared 56 wonderful years together until Marlys passed in 2010. To their marriage five children were born Mary, John, David, Paul and Elizabeth.

Services held for Wayne Torgerson

Wayne Rudolph Torgerson, 75, of Clearbrook, Minnesota died of an apparent heart attack in Grand Forks, ND on June 21, 2018.

The benefits of shopping farmers markets

Farmers markets have grown in popularity in recent years. Nowadays, consumers interested in farmers markets can likely find one near their homes whether those homes are in rural communities, the suburbs or bustling cities.

People who have never before shopped farmers markets may be curious as to why many people find them so appealing. The following are a handful of benefits of shopping farmers markets that might turn market novices into full-fledged devotees.

- Freshness: Many people visit farmers markets because the fruits and vegetables sold at such markets seem to taste more fresh than those sold at chain grocery stores. People are not mistaken, as the produce available at farmers markets often comes from local farms, meaning there's no long-distance shipping necessary. Locally sourced foods need not be frozen en route to the market, meaning foods purchased there tend to taste especially fresh.
- In-season foods: Some grocery stores may sell fruits and vegetables even when those foods are out of season. Farmers markets only sell in-season fruits and vegetables. To grow fruits and vegetables out-of-season, farmers may need to rely on chemicals or other unnatural methods. No such means are necessary when farmers stick to growing foods in-season.

- Environmental benefits: According to the Center for Urban Education about Sustainable Agriculture, food in the United States travels an average of 1,500 miles to get to consumers' plates. Such journeys burn natural resources, pollute the air and produce sizable amounts of trash that ultimately ends up in landfills and/or the world's oceans. Because food sold at farmers markets is locally sourced, considerably fewer natural resources are necessary to transport the food from farm to table, and the relatively short distances the food travels translates to less air pollution.
- Biodiversity: Many farmers market shoppers find unique foods not readily available at their local grocery stores. This is not only a great way to discover new and delicious foods, but also a way to promote biodiversity.
- Hormone-free animal products: Farmers markets do not exclusively sell fruits and vegetables. Many farmers markets also are great places to find meats, cheeses and eggs. Animal products sold at farmers markets are typically antibiotic- and hormone-free, which is both more humane to the animals and healthier than animal products produced with hormones or antibiotics.

Farmers markets are more accessible than ever, and the benefits to shopping such markets are endless.

Understanding dry drowning

Summer fun is punctuated by afternoons spent in the pool or diving through the waves of the ocean. With swimming being such a large part of warm weather recreation, people of all ages have acclimated themselves to drowning prevention measures. While most people are familiar with the risks of drowning, they may have heard misinformation about conditions known as dry drowning or secondary drowning.

Dry drowning and secondary drowning can occur after a person has exited the water, which only heightens the fears associated with each condition. Misinformation may have spurred many of those fears.

The American Osteopathic Association says that, although rare, dry drowning and secondary drowning can occur anytime up to 24 hours after a person stops swimming. Dry drowning occurs when a person, typically a child, inhales water through his or her nose or mouth. This water then triggers a spasm in the airway, causing it to close, and can impact breathing. Secondary drowning happens when swimmers have taken water into the lungs. WebMD says this water can irritate the lining of the lungs and lead to fluid buildup. This is a condition called pulmonary edema.

Dry drowning and secondary drowning can be dangerous, but the conditions are uncommon. Florida Hospital Tampa advises that these events make up between 1 and 2 percent of all drownings, and symptoms tend to show themselves by way of coughing, chest pain, trouble breathing, and feeling extremely tired. A child dealing with dry or secondary drowning also may experience irritability or a drop in energy levels because his or her brain is not getting enough oxygen.

Dr. Katherine H. Hensley, MD, FAAP, a physician at Driscoll Children's Hospital, says dry drowning, or what is more accurately known as "drowning with delayed mortality," since dry drowning and secondary drowning aren't medical diagnoses, is overblown. Symptoms after a drowning incident or water inhalation rarely progress to death. It's also important to note that swallowing water, in which water goes the route of the esophagus and digestive tract, is very different from aspiration, which occurs when water enters the trachea and lungs.

Children who swallow water and do not have an aspiration event with coughing, sputtering and an inability to recover quickly are fine to return to the water whenever they want. Those who aspire water and have continued symptoms later in the day require an emergency medical checkup, says Dr. Hensley.

Summer fun seekers needn't get overly distressed about dry and secondary drowning. However, the key to preventing any drowning is supervision while in the water and getting prompt medical attention if an aspiration event occurs.

Strand, Hunter and Dykhoff get checkers at GRP

by Keith Cumming

Some say that if you want to cure a drought, open a racetrack because it's sure to rain on race-day. And once again mother nature was going to have a say in the nights racing action at the Greenbush Race Park. The pit gates opened at 4pm, and the dark clouds rolled in at 4:05. But mother nature decided to give us a break and only give us a few light sprinkles and the racing would go on.

It was the third annual "Dugan" Nelson memorial for the Midwest Modifieds and Hunter Hougard of Warren, Mn., would lead the 20 car field to the green. But the yellow would fly early and often, nine times in all. Hougard would lead most of the race, and was challenged for the top spot on nearly every lap. Aaron Blacklance of Thief River Falls, Mn., and Mike Nichols of Watertown, S.D. were the main rivals. The last caution flew on lap 19 of the 25 lap feature and Austin Hunter of Winnipeg, Mb., who started seventh, had quietly worked his way into the second spot. Hunter looked for a way to get around Hougard for the next couple of laps and finally made the pass for the lead coming out of corner four with three to go and go on to pick up the win. Hougard would finish second and Blacklance third. The heat wins went to Hougard, Nichols, Reise Stenberg of Argusville, N.D. and Doyle Erickson of Bagley, Mn.

The NLRA Late Models made their first visit of the year for the Jack Grahm Memorial and it would be Dustin Strand of East Grand Forks, Mn., to lead the 16 car field to the green. Strand would use that front row starting spot to jump to the lead. But Bill Mooney of Selkirk, Mb., and Brad Seng of Grand Forks, N.D., wouldn't let Strand get to far away as both drivers took turns at challenging for the lead, but neither could get close enough to make a pass. A late caution on lap 20 would put the entire field on the bumper of Strand, who had already lapped about half of the field, but Strand would go on to get the win and the sweep of the evening, Seng would finish second and Joey Pederson of East Grand Forks, Mn., third. Mooney would win his heat and finish fifth.

Like Strand, Chase Boen of Karlstad, Mn., would use his front row starting spot to take the early lead in the 10 car Street feature. Boen would hold his lead through two cautions but was challenged by Kyle Dykhoff of Perham, Mn., for most of the second half of the race. Dykhoff would get to the back of Boen going into three and four and then play a little bump and run to take the lead with two to go and go on to get the checkers and a sweep of the evening. Boen would finish second and Ryan Johnson of Karlstad, Mn., third. Johnson would win the other heat.

The 10 car Pure Stock feature also had a handful of cautions in their feature, and Darryl Heintz of East. St. Paul, Mb., would start third but grab the lead and not look back. Heintz would never get to far ahead because of the yellows, and had to hold of challenges from a few drivers, including sophomore driver Austin Brekkestran of Thief River Falls, Mn. But Heintz would hold everyone off to pick up his second win of the year, Brekkestran would finish second and A.J. Lane of Williams, Mn., third. Ryan Hagen of Thief River Falls, Mn., would pick up the heat win.

Blake Ferris of Emo, Ont., would start 4th in the six car Outlaw Mini Mod feature and grab the early lead. Ferris would hold the top spot until lap 11 when Kelly Steele of International Falls, Mn., would make the pass for the lead coming out of corner four. Steele would pick up the win and the sweep and remain undefeated in feature races at the Race Park.

Next up at the Race Park will be a regular night of racing featuring Modifieds, Streets, Midwest Modifieds, Pure Stocks, Lightning Sprints, and 4 Cylinders. Gates open at 4pm, cutoff for the draw is 6pm with the racing starting at 7pm sharp. Like us on Facebook at Official Greenbush Race Park, or check us out on the web at <http://www.greenbushracepark.com>.

“Kids Night” at Bemidji Speedway held on Sunday

By Dennis Peterson

Bemidji Speedway was the place to be Sunday night, June 24th, especially if you were a kid. The speedway held its annual “Kids Night” at the track with 13 bikes, 5 scooters, teddy bears, helmets, t-shirts and hoodies given away by drivers, crews and the speedway during intermission. Fans and kids were also allowed to go onto the track during the intermission to meet their favorite drivers and pick up photos, treats and autographs.

Great weather brought out a packed grandstand of excited fans and the pits were full with 82 cars on hand to put on a show for the kids.

Next week will be the Mid-season Championships in all classes.

It was also flagman Dustin Puffe's final night flagging as he and his family will be moving to North Dakota for a new job opportunity. Flagging will be Dustin's assistant flagman Cole Isensee beginning next Sunday.

Bemidji Mini Stocks Feature:

The Bemidji Mini Stocks just continue to grow and grow in numbers. Sunday night 17 mini stocks were on hand to do battle on the ¼ mile oval. Following several attempts at a clean start Shannon George grabbed the early lead over Andrew Hanson. Mike Hart, Cory Nelson and Chris Dyrdaahl held top five spots early. Following another caution Mike Hart powered up and took the lead with Dyrdaahl following into second. Several more cautions slowed the action before the green flag waved and Hart raced to the feature win. Dyrdaahl, George, Nelson and Ross Magnuson filled the top five spots.

Wissota Pure Stocks Feature:

The Wissota Pure stocks were next on track led by heat winner Dylan Lutgen on the pole and Jamie Chlebecsek to his right. Chlebecsek raced to the lead with Kevin Baumgarner, Chad Puschinsky, Lutgen and John Farrington close behind. Again, as in the first feature of mini stocks many cautions slowed the racing. When the green flag finally was once again displayed Chlebecsek was challenged by Baumgarner with some side by side racing. Things heated up when Puschinsky joined the mix passing Baumgarner for second and Farrington decided to make it a four car battle for the win. Again several cautions slowed the race. The final green flag waved and Baumgarner took home the hard fought victory. Puschinsky, Michael Roth, Dusty Caspers and Farrington finished in the top five.

Wissota Mod Four Feature:

In the highly competitive field of Wissota Mod Fours Bemidji Speedway has been featuring many of the best. Sunday was no exception. Mike Hart and Tonja Stranger started the feature on the front row and race got off to a great start with Hart grabbing the lead over Dean Shaver, Dustin Holtquist, Dean Larson, and Stranger. Lap after lap the race remained green with Holtquist racing high then low into second. Larson moved up to the top as well and powered around the entire field to take the lead in impressive fashion. A good race also developed for fifth between Stranger and Allen Foster with Foster prevailing. Larson blasted to a big lead with the cars of Shaver, Holtquist and Blake Erickson battling for second before the first caution of the race waved. The restart was dominated by Larson with Holtquist and Shaver dueling for second door to door. Larson cruised to the win only to be DQ'd in inspection as was Holtquist moving Dean Shaver into first with Erickson second. Josh Seely-Sautbine, Allen Foster and Brian Fedra finished in the top five.

Wissota Midwest Modified Feature:

Weston Ramsrud and Matt

Doyle Erickson, Bagley, in Victory Lane.

In one of the highlight races of the night Doyle Erickson from Bagley outlasted Matt Sparby to take the Wissota Midwest Modified win on Sunday. Standing on his B-Mod and recognizing a cheering crowd.

Sparby led the field of Wissota Midwest Modifieds to the green flag of the next feature. Sparby grabbed control early with Ramsrud, Tim Jackson, Brandon Bahr and Alex Johnson trailing. The 14 B-mods roared around the track with Sparby building a four car length lead over the other competitors. Doyle Erickson started in the third row and was gaining ground racing high around several cars to take 3rd and then raced inside on the back straight into second before the first caution flag waved creating a restart. Once the green flag once again waved it was a battle of two of the best on the track between Sparby and Erickson. Sparby race flawlessly lap after lap with Erickson side by side with him on the inside at times and then tried to the outside, but Sparby always came out in front until late in the race a slight bobble coming out of turn four brought Sparby up on the track and Erickson dove low with the ground standing and cheering on both drivers. Erickson finished the race out front with Sparby finishing second with the crowd of fans showing their appreciation for a great race. Jackson was third with Ramsrud and Bahr in the top five.

Wissota Super Stock Feature:

After losing the Midwest Mod feature late in the race Matt Sparby returned immediately to the track for the Wissota Super Stock feature and with the green flag waving quickly powered out to the lead with Ron Reed, Tim Carlson, Jeff Reed and Brandon Bahr in the top five. Carlson and Reed dueled early for the third spot with Reed holding the advantage. Sparby was clearly not going to let this race get away from him as he raced out to a half lap lead over the field before the first caution for a spin brought the field back together for a restart. But once again it was no contest on this night as Sparby raced to the victory and pulled into Victory Lane. Dalton Carlson, Tim Carlson, and Brandon Bahr followed Sparby across the finish line.

Wissota Modified Feature:

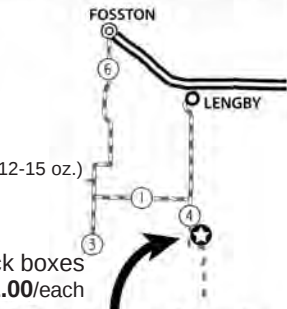

The final race of a fantastic night of racing was the Wissota Modifieds. Sixteen mods rolled on track led by Brady Dyrdaahl and Bret Schmidt. With the green flag waving Schmidt raced to the front with Dyrdaahl, Josh Beaulieu, Rick Jacobson and Doug VAnMill in chase. Jacobson was on the move and raced up side by side with Beaulieu and Dyrdaahl for a three wide duel for second. Following a caution for a spin in the back of the field it was Schmidt out front followed by Jacobson, Dyrdaahl, Tyler Kaeter and Beaulieu. Kaeter raced up and challenged Jacobson for second and the veteran Jacobson and the young star Kaeter put on a show for the fans racing door to door but again a caution slowed the race for a restart. Following several parade laps Kaeter pulled off the track and into the pits as Dyrdaahl drove his mod into the infield. The restart was controlled by Schmidt with Alan Olafson making an appearance in the top five from his fourth row starting position for the first time in the race. Olafson found his groove and raced up to challenge for the lead. Also on the move was 7th row starter Davey Mills. Making steady progress to the front Mills came up out of nowhere to take third and then pass Olafson for second as Beaulieu dropped to fourth. Schmidt had a sizeable lead but Mills found his line and with each lap gained ground on the leader catching him late in the race. Mills raced up onto Schmidt's bumper but could not get beyond the backup spot as Schmidt took took his first ever checkered flag in the modified class from flagman Dustin Puffe. Mills, Olafson, Beaulieu, and Erick Thiesse finished the night in the top five ending an incredible action packed Kids Night of racing at Bemidji Speedway.
