UMN Crookston Holds International Graduate Sashing Ceremony

CROOKSTON, Minn. - Five UMN Crookston seniors and twelve study abroad students were sashed at the International graduation and sashing ceremony, last Monday. Each year the UMN Crookston seniors get their sash and wear this during commencement ceremonies.

Sashing is an annual event recognizing students' international travel. Sam Hassan (Fall '20) and Rose Kanssole (Spring 2021) also were recognized.

Ken Mendez 2011, was the evening's keynote. Mendez shared a story of how his own father arrived in the United States on May 19, 1927 and his interactions with international students and the mutual impact they have had on one another over the years at UMN

Crookston.

The International Alliance Award went to George French, Ph.D and Ken Mendez. These were awards chosen by students.

From left: Lauren Green who went to Ireland, Stephanie Severson who went to Belize, Kiana Johnson who went to Belize, Charli Schocker who went to Ireland, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, and Rose Dittman who went to Ireland.

Rep. Green calls on Walz to set clear end-date for emergency powers

ST. PAUL—State Rep. Steve Green, R-Fosston, is calling for a transparent and concrete process for ending Minnesota's peacetime emergency that has been in place for more than one year.

Gov. Tim Walz is expected to soon announce a loosening of Minnesota's COVID-19 restrictions. This comes after Florida lifted all remaining COVID restrictions, and governors of Democrat states such as New York and California have established target dates for the lifting of capacity limits and other COVID restrictions. Other deep-blue states such as Connecticut lifted capacity limits starting as early as March.

"The plain fact is our state is not facing and emergency and the governor's emergency powers should have been long gone by now," Green said. "Yet the governor still has not laid out a clear plan for how we put his executive orders to rest and altogether bring an end to his emergency powers. People are really wondering what is going on, why he is clinging to his emergency powers even though there's no emergency. The best thing the governor could do is to put his cards on the table and work with the Legislature to develop a clear blueprint for our return to normal. The only thing his delays will serve to do is create more distrust in the governor and become an even bigger reckless abuse of power." House Republicans have voted more than a dozen times to end the peacetime emergency and have put forward numerous proposals to end or modify the governor's Chapter 12 powers, as well as proposals to establish timelines and metrics that would end the peacetime emergency. Democrats have refused to advance those proposals in the House, and have even stone-walled proposals from their own party to wind down the Governor's emergency powers.

The Grygla School held their Evening with the Arts last week. The evening started with a variety of items on display from the Art. Wood-Shop and FACS students, along with the Robotics Club setting up a robotic competition for folks to see. A handful of music students were on hand to provide vocal selections, before the Drama Department put on a play titled "Door to Door." The "Door to Door" cast (above) included, L-R: Chelsie Nelson (sound tech), Janessa Torgerson, Harlie Hagen, Mollie Lunsetter, Anthony Englund, Andrew Englund and Lila Alten. The play was directed by Audrya Nelson. All photos by Grygla Eagle Newspaper. Look for more pictures on page 8 of the Canary.

More than 770 MSUM students to graduate in May

As the capstone celebration of the college experience, commencement is one of our favorite days of the year at Minnesota State University Moorhead. It is the culmination of years of hard work and sacrifice by our students. MSUM will celebrate our newest graduates' extraordinary achievements during four college-level virtual ceremonies on May 13 and 14.

"Commencement is the time of year we all anticipate with pride and excitement. As a university community, we celebrate the transformative power of higher education. For our graduates, it is a well-deserved opportunity to celebrate with family and friends and commemorate an important educational milestone," said MSUM President Anne Blackhurst.

In addition to the four virtual ceremonies, Blackhurst says, "We encourage our students, Congratulations Class of 2021! We are so proud of you!

Gov. Walz proclaims May 'Community Action Month'

As the network of 24 Minnesota Agencies and 11 MN Tribal Nations celebrates 57 years of innovative poverty solutions and service

In Minnesota, Community Action Agencies have worked tirelessly over the past year to meet some of the most pressing needs caused by COVID-19, including providing rental, mortgage and utility assistance, food delivery and socially-distanced food distribution events, and broadband and technology support to name a few.

The Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 authorized the creation of Community Action Agencies to provide opportunities for self-sufficiency and success for those with limited incomes. Since then, Community Action Agencies have made essential contributions to individuals and families in Minnesota, and across the U.S., by providing them with innovative and cost-effective services over the past half-century. Gov. Tim Walz proclaimed May as "Community Action Month."

This year, Inter-County Community Council Inc. (ICCC), a proud member of Minnesota Community Action

Partnership (MinnCAP), will also commemorate 56 years of helping families throughout the designated service area of Clearwater, East Polk, Red Lake and Pennington counties. "Each May, during Community Action Month, we reflect on the impact ICCC and our network has had on families in our communities," said Catherine Johnson, Executive Director of ICCC. "Last year alone, we served an unduplicated count of 1,666 people in our service area, and over 15 million across the entire network with immediately needed services such as shelter and food, and also long-term solutions like training and job placement."

Community Action Agencies serve 99 percent of all U.S. counties with essential services to help families achieve financial stability. All agencies are locally controlled and represented by the private, public, and low-income sectors of the community.

Speak LIFE

I am thirteen. Thirteen weeks old. My fingerprint is developing lines and creases unique to me. I can swallow now. This is helping my body practice breathing. What is my trick this week? Well, if you check my ultrasound you might see my thumb in my mouth. Oh—and if I am a girl—my ovaries are already carrying the eggs of your future grandchildren. Wow! Right? So far, my head is taking up most of the room in here and I have now grown to the size of a lime.

Ask a Trooper

by Sgt. Jesse Grabow Minnesota State Patrol

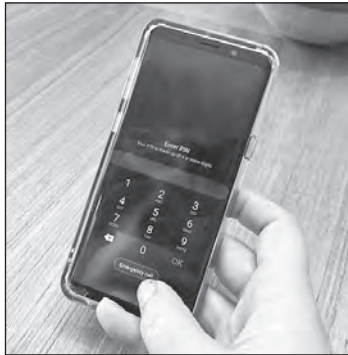

With summer around the corner I thought this information that was recently posted on the Department of Public Safety's blog was important to share.

"If there's one thing we've learned about smart phones, it's that touch screens can be... well, touchy. If it hasn't happened to you, you've probably heard about it—your cat walks on the screen and turns your phone off, or your toddler grabs it while you're not looking and accidentally calls your boss. It can even happen in your pocket, when you somehow end up dialing whoever is at the top of your contacts list – as anyone whose name begins with an A can attest.

Most of these accidents are harmless. But more and more, people are unknowingly pressing just the right combination of buttons to activate the built-in SOS function on their phones, resulting in an accidental call to 911. Both iPhone and Android have this feature, and it's an issue that Minnesota public safety answering points (PSAPs) have been dealing with over the past year.

It sounds harmless enough, but here's the problem: anytime a dispatcher has to answer an accidental 911 call, it takes their time and attention away from 911 callers who have true emergencies and need help. Holiday weekends are especially a concern. Over the 2020 4th of July weekend, dispatchers in Crow Wing County reported receiving over 100 SOS calls from people who had inadvertently activated the SOS feature on their devices. Another PSAP reported that a man called 911 using this feature on his wife's phone. When he hung up and the dispatcher called him back, he apologized, saying he had no idea that this feature even existed.

Just remember that if you do accidentally call 911, don't hang up. Dispatchers will just call you back anyway to make sure you're okay. And if they can't contact you, they may even send first responders to check on you. Instead, stay on the line, tell the dispatcher it was a mistake, and explain that there's no emergency. On most phones (and smartwatches – yes, it happens with them, too), you can disable this feature using the settings app. But public safety officials don't recommend it, because that makes one less way to contact 911 if necessary.

April was National 911 Education Month, so it's a good time to review all the ways you can contact 911 if you have an emergency. There is of course the traditional call on your phone, but remember that if you can't call, you can also text to 911. And if there is any disruption of 911 services, it's helpful to have the 10-digit, 24-hour number for the PSAP of the county you're in. Write them down or save them in your phone for the counties you're in the most.

The more you know about the various ways to contact 911, the safer you'll be. Others will be safer, too, when dispatchers can focus on the true emergencies."

Theology in the Trenches

By Kathleen Kjolhaug

Tossing the Throw

We've all seen it by now. If not, take note. Farm home, down home, lake-home, your home, my home or any picture worth looking at has it. The final signature of a good picture from bedroom, to couch, to front porches has this item. It is a throw, a soft blanket, tossed neatly and gently onto any space of grace.

No longer do we fold a blanket up all neat and tidy placing it at the end of the bed. Rather, it is strategically placed so as to be inviting one to take the corner of it and finish tossing the throw right on over one's self while relaxing in the area where it is on display.

Not sure when it came into fashion, but I'm glad it did. Couple that with a neutral colored mug filled to the brim with something warm and you've got yourself a winner. After all, the world offers little respite and one look at a pic such as this and well...you've just hit the reset button...or pause...take your pick.

It's a good thing to wrap you up in cozy. It acts as a shield you know. It's a shield not only for the body, but for the heart. We need to pause and reset the rewind before things completely unravel round us. We were not made to go into the deep without the quiet. We're just built that way. Engines need oil. Cars need gas. We need pause.

Jesus appears to be the one who set the trend now trending. After all, He was wrapped in swaddling clothes once born...

all cozy like, in the pause of night, in the midst of one crazy world round Him. And when it was all said and done, they wrapped His beautiful body, after being taken down from the cross, in cloth, to be laid gently in the tomb. I would suppose it mattered not to Him, but for those who did so, it brought immense comfort by showing respect for a man who had literally just been to hell and back.

It's a comfort to be comforted, and I've purchased several of the cozy like blankets to wrap myself up in the middle of pause. It's therapeutic. I've given myself permission to do so, and I hope you have too. For under a twenty spot, you can gather every weary portion and be blessed in such manner.

I like how 2 Corinthians puts it in chapter 1 verse 3. It's a dandy. "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God."

So wrap yourself up and be comforted. Grab His Word along with it and He will speak comfort and in turn, you will be able to comfort those who need His. Splurge on yourself with care, and you may, in turn, be better able to care for others. It's not selfish to take care of ourselves. Rather...tis a gift "for such a time as this" (Esther 4:14). Amen.

Obituary for Iona Berry

Iona Jeanette Berry passed away peacefully on March 28, 2021 at the Sanford Medical Center in Bemidji, Minnesota at the age of 94.

Mass of Christian Burial will take place at 2:00 PM on Saturday, May 15, 2021 at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church in Oklee, MN, with Father Adam Hamness presiding. Interment will follow at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Cemetery in Oklee, MN.

Visitation will be held one hour prior to the funeral at the church.

Iona was born on November 28, 1926 on the family farm in Gully, Minnesota and was the 5th of 6 children. She grew up in Gully and graduated from Fosston High School. After graduation, Iona went to work at the bank in Oklee where she met and married her husband Jerome Berry. They moved to Minneapolis where Iona worked at the gas company as a bookkeeper but returned to Oklee to run the Berry Cafe. Iona was approached by Oklee Superintendent Carl Quist and asked to be the school secretary. She accepted and served as the school secretary and bookkeeper until her retirement in 1990. Iona loved her job and loved watching every student in Oklee grow up. She was frequently invited to class reunions over the years, by students who remembered her fondly from their school days.

After her retirement from Oklee Public Schools and the death of her beloved husband Jerry in 1990, Iona threw herself into life as an active senior. She was an avid traveler - visiting Europe (including Norway of course!) multiple times plus Mexico, Hawaii, Alaska, South Carolina, and Florida. She was a skilled card player and was always up for a hand of whist or bridge with family and friends. She took great pride in her yard and spent many happy hours gardening and mowing. She delighted in spending time with her family - traveling often to see her daughter and granddaughters in California and Virginia and visiting Nevada for a bit of fun with her sister and nieces. Closer to home she enjoyed visiting relatives in the Gully and Bemidji areas. She was a devoted mother, and spoke daily with son Donald and daughter Suellen.

Iona was a dedicated member or the Oklee community since her arrival in the 1950s. In her retirement she volunteered for a variety of area groups including the Oklee Senior Site and St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. She wrote a column for the Oklee Herald for over a decade - updating the community on senior news and always including a good Ole and Lena joke. She even served as Oklee's mayor for a few years in the 1990s. Iona was recognized for her community spirit - twice awarded the Red Lake County Senior Citizen of the Year.

She is survived by her two children Suellen Spong (Scott) of Paso Robles, California and Don Berry of Oklee, as well as her granddaughters Angie (Mike), Marisa (Metodi), and Ariel and great-granddaughters, Molly and Madeline. She is also survived by her sister and brother-in-law Dolly and Will Robbins plus many loving nieces and nephews across Minnesota and beyond. She was preceded in death by her husband Jerome Berry, her parents Henry and Esther Bergh, siblings Russell Bergh, Grace Brekke, Hazel Lee, and Sanford Bergh, nieces Cheryl Plante and Sandra Anderson, and nephews Richard Melby, LeRoy Lee, D.D. Lee and Wayne Brekke.

Iona will be deeply missed by her family and friends - a beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, sister, and friend who lit up the lives of all who knew her.

Condolences in memory of Iona may be sent to Johnson Funeral Service, 420 LaBree Ave N, Thief River Falls, MN, 56701.

Obituary for Elaine Gunderson

Elaine Gunderson, age 80, of Alexandria, MN, formerly of Bejou, MN, passed away on Saturday, May 1, 2021 at Alomere Hospital in Alexandria.

Nora Elaine Wallin was born on July 19, 1940 in Superior, WI. Growing up as the middle child with two brothers and two sisters set her lifelong path for achievement and creativity. As a young girl raised in the Wisconsin countryside, she loved the great outdoors, animals, nature, flowers, vegetable gardens and fellowship, all of which made for a lifetime of many great memories. Attending school was a great enjoyment for her as her interests were chemistry, literature, reading, singing and music. Religion was extremely important as well, giving her a lifelong heart of gold and kindred spirit.

Elaine's full-time working career spans from Washington, D.C. and Cedar Rapids, IA, to her retirement in 1995 from the ASCS Office of Mahnomen County, MN, ending a 32-year career.

She married Lyle Gunderson in 1962, and together they had three children: Eileen, Mary and Ray. They owned and operated a grain farm and raised beef cattle. The farm was a hub of activity which was known to all that the coffee pot was always on and Elaine's culinary skills showcased the finest of everything she touched.

With her love for cooking, baking, bread making, desserts and pastries she created an owner operator business after her retirement from the ASCS Office, which was a well-known success for a spectrum of events from small gatherings to large weddings. Elaine loved the planning, production, and people engagement this business adventure brought her, which lasted for many years.

Elaine was known for her love of God, religion, church, family, and grandchildren. She had many talents and was a giving person always wanting to teach and listen, a true angel on earth.

Elaine moved off the farm to the Pine to Prairie Assisted Living in Fosston, MN, before moving in 2018 to the Edgewood Healthcare Living in Alexandria, MN, where she was a current resident.

God bless the memory of Elaine.

She is survived by her children: Eileen (Jason) Winter of Avon, MN, Mary (Daniel) Floding of Alexandria, MN, and Ray (Stacy) Gunderson of Gary, MN; her grandchildren: Katie (Jacob), Tyler, Jeremy, Paige, and Parker; great-grandchildren, Annika & Bjorn; siblings: Belva Domogalla, Conrad Willin and Marlys Wallin; brother-in-law, Duane (Sue) Gunderson; and many nieces; nephews; and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Helmer and Charlotte Wallin; brother, Gordon Wallin and her husband, Lyle Gunderson in 2017.

Funeral Services were held on Thursday, May 6, 2021, at 10:30 a.m. at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Bejou, MN. Visitation took place at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Bejou on Wednesday, from 4:00 until 7:00 p.m., with a Prayer Service beginning at 6:00 p.m. and continued one hour prior to the funeral. Burial took place at Riverside Memorial Park in Mahnomen, MN.

The funeral service was recorded and is available online on our website.
