Vol. 46 Number 16

A look at next week ... Charger's Volleyball holds their "Pink Out" night in conjunction with Parent's Night!

Marshall County Deputy Sheriff Cody Gillund and K9 Eva visited the Grygla School last week! The kids loved learning more about the local K9 unit. Please take a minute to go give this team your vote today. Photo courtesy of Grygla School

Local K9 Unit is 1 of 30 finalists in SUV giveaway

Your vote can make all the difference! Marshall County Deputy Sheriff Cody Gillund and K9 Eva are one of 30 finalists who are eligible to win a new SUV for their K9 Unit from nonprofit Vested Interest in K9s, Inc.

Vote once a day from now until October 31st to help them win! Go to www.vik9s.org/suvvote

There is still a lot of time left in the contest, which gives us a huge chance to show the nation how well our community pulls together! Deputy Sheriff Cody Gillund says a lot of votes are needed to compete with some of the major news coverage the other teams are getting across the US. Out of the 30 teams, there are some larger agencies in the running with a lot more exposure than our small community. "The winner last year had 35,000 votes out of 150,000 total," Gillund shared. "Please vote as often as you can! The repeat votes are the only way to compete with the metro areas," he added.

Not only would our Marshall County K9 Unit win the custom-fitted SUV, it would make for one heck of a birthday gift for K9 Eva, who turns 6 years old on November 13th.

Voting is very simple; head to www.vik9s.org/suvvote and find Officer Gillund and Eva's photo and give it a click! You can do this every day until October 31st!

Youth gear up for hunting weekend

Area youth ages 10-15 are gearing up to participate in a special deer season that runs from Thursday, October 17th, to Sunday, October 20th. "Youth can hunt with adult mentors during youth deer season," said Mike Kurre, DNR mentoring program coordinator. "This season is a way to focus on young hunters so they have good experiences and learn valuable skills."

Blaze orange requirements apply to all hunters, trappers and adult mentors in areas open for the youth deer season. Youth must meet all firearms safety requirements, purchase a license and use the appropriate firearm for the permit area in which they are hunting. Youth may take a deer of either sex and may only take one deer during the youth season.

An adult mentor must accompany the youth but may not hunt or carry a firearm and does not need a license.

Public land is open, and private land is also open provided the hunters have landowner permission. Participating in the youth deer season does not affect eligibility of youth to participate in the regular firearms deer season but any deer harvested does count against the youth's season bag limit.

More information can be found in the Minnesota Hunting and Trapping Regulations Handbook under the heading 'Special Youth Deer Season' and also online at www.mndnr.gov/regulations/hunting.

We want your deer photos, kids

The youth deer season is coming up this weekend and we want to publish your deer photos again! Doe or buck, we want them all! Proudly send them in the mail to the Grygla Eagle at PO Box 17 or email them to grygla.eagle@gmail.com or easily text them to 218.689.6901.

Grygla teacher selected to attend NEA National Leadership Summit

Grygla 4th grade teacher Abby Sundberg will be heading to Orlando, Florida, on March 13th -15th to attend the 2020 NEA National Leadership Summit.

National Education Association (NEA), the nation's largest professional employee organization, is committed to advancing the cause of public education. NEA's 3 million members work at every level of education – from pre-school to university graduate programs. Their mission is to advocate for education professionals and to unite members across the nation to fulfill the promise of public education to prepare every student to succeed in a diverse and interdependent world.

The National Leadership Summit focuses on, develops and prepares the next generation of leaders with knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to lead in their professions.

Sundberg recently found out that she had been nominated by Education Minnesota Field Representative Kevin Young. She expressed her gratitude on being selected, "I am so honored to not only be chosen to attend this summit, but also to represent our community and bring the Grygla School to such an important event." Abby is looking forward to the learning and training experience in a few months where educators from all across the state and nation will gather and network.

Superintendent Jamie Lunsetter expressed, "We are so proud that Mrs. Sundberg has been chosen for this honor. It's a great accolade for her, our school and our community. She will definitely make the most of this great opportunity and will represent us with dignity and character as she always does!"

Gene Lunsetter, President of the Grygla Education Association, also offered his congratulations to Abby and said that to his knowledge, no other Grygla teachers have been selected for this Leadership Summit.

Special visitors at the Grygla Fire Station

In honor of National Fire Prevention Week (October 6th-12th, 2019), many young kids paid a visit to the Grygla Fire Station throughout the week, which included elementary classes, along with ECFE children and parents. "Not every hero wears a cape. PLAN and PRACTICE your ESCAPE!" was this year's Fire Prevention Week campaign. It recognizes the everyday people who motivate their households to develop and practice a home fire escape plan; these seemingly basic behaviors can have life-saving impact. The youngsters got a chance to see all the different equipment, take a look around the station and visit with our local volunteers. Photos courtesy of Grygla School

GRYGLA LIBRARY LINK

Written by Kari Sundberg, Grygla Librarian

Well, I decided to join the rest of the world (many years later) and see what Harry Potter is all about. I've never read the books, nor have I ever seen any of the movies. To be honest, I've never had the desire to – witches and wizards aren't really my thing, I guess. However, everyone knows the world phenomenon that is the Harry Potter series and knowing how millions are obsessed with it, I thought I'd finally sit down with Book 1 and give it a chance.

Well. Brace yourselves for the truth. I'm not into it. YET.

I have to force myself to sit down and get through each page and I'm just not enjoying having to do that. I get that it was written for younger kids, but there has to be a reason millions of adults became obsessed with it, too, right!? It's taken me a couple of weeks just to get to page 150 and I can't get hooked on the wizarding world of Harry.

When it comes to young adult series like Twilight (Team Edward), Hunger Games, Maze Runner, Divergent...I went in head first and loved them all. I really wanted to love Harry Potter, too, and felt like I'd be addicted right from page one.

I was envisioning myself ordering some cozy Harry Potter pajamas or maybe even dressing up as one of the characters this Halloween. I could even see myself booking a ticket to ride the Hogwarts Express right into the Harry Potter Theme Park at Disney World (I mean, it sure sounds like something I'd do).....but unfortunately (or fortunately), that's not the case here.

I'm not going to give up, though, so don't wave your wand at me just yet. Maybe by next week, I will have finished the book and we can revisit the topic. But right now today, I'm feeling too old and too uninterested in magic to binge the Harry Potter series.

(Sigh.) Stay tuned. Next up, Ticket to Brasil! On November 6th, the Grygla's

NWRL is hosting a program at the Grygla School at 10am in the big gym. The program is for Goodridge and Grygla K-12 students, but is open to the public, as well. There is no charge so come check it out and see what it's all about.

Ticket to Brasil members are experienced professional musicians as well as educators. World guitarist Pavel Jany, together with Brazilian vocalist Natania Kamin and Brazilian percussionist and vocalist Josue Alfaro, will take you on an inspiring journey through the sounds and rhythms of one of the richest musical cultures in the world. A note from Superintendent Jamie Lunsetter

"The path from dreams to success does exist. May you have the vision to find it, the courage to get on to it, and the perseverance to follow it." ~ Kalpana Chawla

This is such an important message for all of us. Being in education, I've had the opportunity to talk to hundreds of kids about their future aspirations and dreams. I am also proud to have been able to help many of them find the path that leads to reaching those dreams. We've all had things we've wanted to do and work towards fall apart. The key is to continue setting goals, planning and building steps to reach those goals. When we say we want to be a rocket scientist, and have no plan to get there, most of the time, it isn't going to happen. But when we set a goal, create a clear vision, take it one step at a time and have the perseverance to work through the challenges and obstacles that appear, we have a high likelihood of success! Keep dreaming, keep working towards your goals and keep the faith!

Cheesy Ground Beef Rice Casserole

This is a really easy recipe and a favorite around our house. I'm really not a fan of peas, but I always put them in, anyway. The entire dish is excellent. So cheesy. So creamy. Probably not the healthiest, but hey, add those peas and you're on the right track! Ha.

What you need

- 1 lb ground beef
- 1 small onion, diced
- 2 teaspoons garlic powder
- 1 small can tomato sauce
- 3 cups cooked rice
- 1.5 cup chicken broth
- 1 cup sour cream
- 2 cups shredded cheese
- salt, pepper, oregano

1 cup frozen peas

How you make it

Preheat oven to 350° F. Spray a skillet with cooking spray and turn on the heat to high. Roast the onions for a few minutes. Add ground beef and garlic, brown the ground beef completely, turn heat to medium. Spice with salt, pepper and oregano how you like it. Add rice, peas, tomato sauce, 1 cup cheese and broth, let simmer for 3 minutes.

Transfer everything into a casserole dish and bake for 15 minutes. Meanwhile, combine the rest of the cheese with the sour cream. After 15 minutes, put that cheese/sour cream mixture on top of your casserole and bake for another 15 minutes.

Goodridge Summer Reading Program

On Friday, October 4th, the Goodridge School held their rewards program for the Summer Reading Program. 35 students (out of 45) completed the requirements of reading or writing for 20 minutes a day/5 days a week for the months of June, July and August. Way to go, readers! All students received a free movie pass and a $10.00 scholastic book order certificate from: Falls Cinema, Goodridge Area Development, American State Bank of Grygla and Faith WELCA. One student from preschool-7th grade received $20 cash from Northern State Bank of TRF. Ten students received games from the Seven Clans Casino. The Grygla Library also included the students in their Summer Reading program events and programs that the group attended and extremely enjoyed!

Be Charger Kind

The Grygla School is promoting their Be Charger Kind program again this year. Each week, an elementary and high school student will be recognized for going above and beyond in showing their acts of kindness. As a parent/guardian of a student(s), you are asked to talk with your children about ways of showing kindness. As a community, it is important for us to instill kindness in our young people as they grow. Recent winners are Andrew Englund and Joseph Stinson. Photo courtesy of Tausha Severts

Tough loss for the Chargers in Badger

“It was a miserable and cold rainy night to play football up in Badger,” says Head Coach John Wilebski. The GG Chargers played the BGMR Gators last Thursday night and came home after being defeated 30-0. Wilebski commented, “The young Charger football team found out that there is another level yet to reach in playing smash mouth football in section #8. The old football saying is “hit or get hit.” The flight or fight response kicks in and if you don’t fight back – you’re done.” He went on to say, “The Gators came out hitting with an experienced senior-led line up that took it to us right off the opening kick-off. On the positive side, the Chargers did regroup and started to battle back, getting inside the red zone twice, but failing to convert on a fourth down play and fumbling on a scoring drive with wet conditions.” GG: 0 0 0 0 = 0 BGMR: 16 0 6 8 = 30 Offensive: Andrew Loken 22 carries for 70 yards, Moses Jensen 10 carries for 37, Matt Busse 2 carries for 8 yards, Riley Manderud 3 carries for 11 yards. Passing: Manderud 1 for 5 for 7 yards Rec: Moses Jensen 1 for 7 yards Defensive tackles: Blake Passa 7 tackles, Andrew Loken 6 tackles, Matt Busse 4 tackles 1 interception. The final game of the season is Tuesday, October 15th, vs. SAC in Grygla. Looking ahead to playoffs, Wilebski said it’s shaping up that the Chargers will get a rematch with the Gators. Opponent and location is TBD, but the first playoff game is scheduled for Tuesday, October 22nd.

Recent Charger Volleyball stats

Recent volleyball stats per Head Coach Katelyn Tharaldson Chargers lose to LOW in three (October 1st in Baudette): 24-26, 20-25, 20-25 Caitlyn Jacobson: 22 digs, 13 kills Chargers vs. KCC (October 4th in Lancaster): No stats provided Chargers over RLCC in three (October 8th in Oklee): 25-22, 25-17, 25-17

Chloe Kuznia: 31 assists, 3 ace serves; Caitlyn Jacobson: 11 kills, 2 blocks; Amy Wiskow: 17 digs Comments from Tharaldson: The girls played really well against RLCC. They were serving hard, which helped get the Mustangs out of system. We had a total of 13 ace serves which is the most we have ever had in a game. I think they felt confident and that’s the way they played. We have a few more games left so if they can play with the confidence they had against RLCC we should have some good matches. Chargers vs. Northern Freeze (October 10th in Newfolden): No stats provided The Charger Volleyball team will host Stephen/Argyle Central on Monday, October 14th, in Goodridge. This is the team’s PINK OUT night, along with Parent’s Night! Watch for photos in next week’s Eagle.

Art exhibit in recognition of Domestic Violence Month The Northwest Minnesota Arts Council (NWMAC) is pleased to announce an exhibition of painted portraits, stories and mixed media by Christine Foster and a jingle dress-inspired sculpture by Stephanie Olson. The art installation, Hope & Freedom: Mending the Soul, is now open through November 30 at the NWMAC Gallery at Northland College and Technical School in Thief River Falls. “I had a vision to paint the stories of women who are survivors of mental, sexual, physical and/or spiritual abuse. I want to help victims who are in abuse situations currently or have been abused in the past to know that they are not alone, as well as to know that there is hope. I have incorporated both images and words in each woman’s portrait story. The story will share the pain along with the healing journey.” Christine Foster is an artist and teacher from Thief River Falls, MN. She received a $5,000

Artist Project Grant from NWMAC to create art in 2016 for her showcase, Hope & Freedom: Mending the Soul, which features paintings of women who have previously been abused and have since found help and redemption. The exhibit also features each woman’s story next to her painted portrait. “Each woman has shared their life story with me through written form or conversation. They decided what imagery, symbols, colors and words will best speak of their life. Women did or did not want part of her portrait included. I left it up to each woman’s discretion as to how she would like her story portrayed. Each portrait story is a cooperative effort between the woman, the artwork and myself. I envisioned using a variety of windows to display the portrait stories. Windows are a symbol of the access to our souls. The degree of openness will depend upon each woman and their healing journey.” Thief River Falls Artist Stephanie Olson will display her jingle cone dress-inspired sculpture in this exhibit. “The idea for this sculpture came to me in a dream. I am usually a painter, so it was unusual. But I decided to try, to see what could work.” Influenced by traditional indigenous skirts, this sculpture was made of jingle cone beads, metal wire, hand-dyed cotton twine, leather lacing, feathers, and red paint to raise awareness and support for missing and murdered indigenous women and girls. Each jingle cone bead was sponsored, meaning each bead represents an effort toward the cause of supporting funds and increased awareness for missing and murdered Indigenous women. Each jingle cone bead also bears a name, either the name of the sponsor or a name they chose in honor or memory. This sculpture was able to raise over $500 for the Minnesota Indian Women’s Resource Center. “I am hopeful that this sculpture will continue to raise awareness for MMIW. It can also serve as a symbol for unity, for community intention.” A disproportionate number of Native American women and girls are missing or murdered each year. This national epidemic has started to receive more attention. In Minnesota, the state recently launched a Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women’s Task Force to study the issue and make recommendations to address the problem. You can learn more about this issue at this powerful exhibit. Christine and Stephanie will be available at the Artist Reception on Thursday, November 7 from 6 to 8 PM. The NWMAC Gallery is located at Northland Community and Technical College in Thief River Falls. The gallery hours are Monday-Friday from 8:30-5 PM and at other times when events are held at the college. Enter through Door B. Visitor parking is free in front of the business office.
