Lion's Club honors 2021 graduates

The Grygla Lion's Club hosted their Annual Senior Supper last week on Monday, May 17th, at the Grygla Community Center. The 2021 Grygla graduates were honored and invited to attend a special supper, along with their family members. The Grain Bin Café catered the supper with the Lion's inviting Jeremy Verbout, Lt Col, USAF (Ret) to attend as the guest speaker.

Lieutenant Colonel Jeremy "SEAL" Verbout is a 1995 graduate of Grygla High School. Recently retired from the United States Air Force after serving his country for 20 years, his career has been one of major accomplishments, awards, and decorations. From furthering his career at The Pentagon, to being a part of top-secret intelligence assignments and joining an elite club of the U-2 spy plane, only flown by a select few, Jeremy set out to conquer his dreams, which sent him soaring to the edge of space. With years of living all over the globe, Jeremy and his family have settled down in White Bear Lake, Minnesota. He was honored to come back to Grygla, inspiring and motivating the room full of hopeful seniors, who are about to embark on their new path. Photo by Grygla Eagle Newspaper

Opportunities available to hunt elk

Interested hunters have through Friday, June 11, to apply for one of 30 elk licenses offered this year by the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources. Seasons will run from late August to mid-October.

This year's seasons are similar to last year's, which provided hunters with more opportunities to harvest antlerless elk. Hunters can choose from three license options: a license for a bull elk; a license for an antlerless elk, which can be a female or a young male; or a license for either a bull or antlerless elk.

The dates for the 2021 Minnesota elk season are:

- Saturday, Aug. 28, to Sunday, Sept. 5: Five antlerless tags and two either-sex tags will be available in the Kittson central (zone 20) zone.

- Saturday, Sept. 11, to Sunday, Sept. 19: Five antlerless tags and two either-sex tags will be available in the Kittson central (zone 20) zone and two bull-only tags will be available in the Kittson north-east (zone 30) zone.

- Saturday, Sept. 25, to Sunday, Oct. 3: Five antlerless tags and two either-sex tags will be available in the Kittson central (zone 20) zone.

- Saturday, Oct. 9, to Sunday, Oct. 17: Five antlerless tags and two either-sex tags will be available in the Kittson central (zone 20) zone.

The DNR uses hunting as the main tool to manage elk populations, with focused harvest of female elk aimed at keeping populations within goal range.

Minnesota's elk herds

There are currently three recognized herds in northwestern Minnesota: Grygla, Kittson Central, and Kittson Northeast, which is also referred to as Caribou-Vita. As a result of COVID-19 precautions and social distancing requirements, the DNR did not conduct its annual aerial elk surveys this year.

Instead, population estimates developed from field and modeling data were used to identify a level of harvest for this year's season that is consistent with our elk management goals. The licenses available for 2021 support continued population reduction. The available licenses were decreased relative to 2020.

During February 2020, the DNR counted 126 elk in most of the state's elk range in Kittson, Marshall and Beltrami counties. The Grygla and Kittson Central herd counts were 24 and 102 elk, respectively. The Caribou-Vita herd was last surveyed in 2018.

The Grygla and the Caribou-Vita herds remain below goal, which is why the Grygla area elk zone remains closed to hunting and minimal permits (two bull-only licenses) are available for the Caribou-Vita zone. The limited bulls-only season is held to keep the Caribou-Vita herd wary of human presence and development.

The Kittson Central herd is predicted to be above goal, providing the majority of this year's hunting opportunities. Minnesota's elk management plan sets a population goal range for each of the three herds.

Applying for a license

It is important that hunters review the elk season structure on the DNR website prior to entering the lottery to ensure they apply for the license they want. Five licenses are reserved for applicants who have unsuccessfully applied for at least 10 years and five licenses are reserved for individuals who meet landowner requirements.

Hunters must select the type of elk license they are applying for: bull-only (two licenses available), either-sex (eight licenses available) or antlerless-only (20 licenses available), in addition to the zone and season. Hunters may apply individually or in parties of two online or by telephone 888-665-4236. There is a non-refundable application fee of $5 per hunter.

Successful hunters will need to present their animal within 24 hours of harvest for registration and collection of biological samples to screen for diseases or other health-related issues.

More information is available on the DNR's elk hunting page. For more on Minnesota's elk, visit the DNR's elk management page.

Northern Lights fishing report

Written by Ben Kucera
 On this week's report, I got up to the big lake and my bad luck continues. Reports have been good all over the lake, especially from Longpoint and east. Out of the Longpoint area, jig and minnow, both alive and frozen, were producing fish. They are fishing that 6'-10' and then out around 15'-20'. Same thing goes for the Pine Island side.

I, on the other hand, continued me and Maria's fishing trips after the half day of school on Wednesday. I picked her up and headed north and launched in Warroad. I talked to a couple guys that came in. They had 3 in the well and had caught a few little ones and fished 12'-14'.

We started our first drift in 8' and went out to 16' and caught 1 lonely 20" pike and no other bites. Went to start the motor and couldn't get it to start at all. We tried for about 45 minutes. I got my trolling motor to somewhat work, but not really, and had to get another boat to tow me in. Pretty bad feeling to be in that predicament. I asked them how they did fishing and they had caught 1 fish in a few hours. So not the best report from the blinker area.

Red Lake continues to produce fish, as well, from 10' or less with a red or gold jig, with a live minnow. Maple Lake crappies should be in the shallows in force spawning. Look for shallows 5' or less with cover; weeds, logs, docks or anything really. I will be heading to Blackduck again this weekend and hopefully my bad boat luck, or as we call it, ADVENTURES, ends.

I am currently busy with a few rods and hope to work on some tackle next week. If you need anything or want me to make something get a hold of me. Good luck this coming weekend and be safe.

Ben Kucera is the owner and creator of Northern Lights Tackle & Custom Rods. He is also a Marshall County Sheriff's Deputy residing in Grygla with his wife and children. Ben is an avid fisherman who will be writing and submitting a fishing report weekly. You can follow his Facebook page at Northern Lights Tackle and/or contact him at 218-684-0588.

Feelin' Fit & Fine program

North Valley Public Health (NVPH) is once again promoting Feelin' Fit & Fine this summer to encourage healthy behaviors among children. This is a fun contest that offers a chance to win prizes while participating in healthy behaviors such as bike riding, swimming, eating healthy, walking, etc. This contest will start June 7th and is open to children in Marshall County ages 3-12.

Sign your children up online or call NVPH to register over the phone.

Once your child is registered, they will be eligible to participate in different weekly themed contests to earn a chance to win prizes. The parent will take a picture of each child participating in an activity related to that week's theme. Once the week is over, all names will be entered into the drawing for a weekly prize. EVERY child will receive a participation prize after the first picture is submitted. There will also be a grand prize at the conclusion of the contest.

Weekly themes will be sent out to parents via email, along with some ideas to get started. Children are encouraged to participate each week and be creative and come up with other healthy behaviors, as well!

We hope all the kids have an active, safe and healthy summer. We can't wait to see all the fun pictures. Don't hesitate to call our office with any questions.

Senior Citizen's meeting

There will be a Senior Citizen's meeting on Wednesday, June 2nd, at the Grain Bin Café at 12pm. Discussion will include the senior trip to Jasper's Theater by Park Rapids. Hope to see you there. For more information, please contact Thelma Thomas.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

While we are all guilty of celebrating the unofficial start of summer and encouraging each other to "have a good weekend," it is important to remember the reason for the holiday: Memorial Day is the day Americans set aside to honor those brave men and women who met tragic ends while defending our freedom. It is our duty to honor their sacrifices, to pray for their families, and to bow our heads in recognition of their service.

The United States congress has declared the Friday before Memorial Day as National Poppy Day. We encourage everyone to wear a bright red poppy in remembrance of those who paid the ultimate price for our freedom. We must never forget. The poppy, which bloomed on the battlefields of France after

Queso Chicken Soup

For all you Keto followers, this is a recipe for you. I took it right out of a Cast-Iron Keto recipe book, which looked so good. I'm a sucker for soup, so I'm excited to try this out. I'm not actually following Keto, though I probably should. Sigh. But it was a library book that I just found myself flipping through and drooling over. I'm excited to make this one cooler, rainy evening.

Directly from the pages: "One of our most popular and, dare we say, delicious recipes. This soup is perfect for chilly nights, but we don't blame you for making it in the middle of July, as well. If you're a topping fanatic, feel free to add even more. Avocado and sour cream are delicious in this soup."

Soup

1 tbsp avocado oil
2 cans Rotel Original, drained
1 tbsp gluten-free taco seasoning
1 lb boneless, skinless chicken breasts
3 cups chicken broth
8 oz cream cheese
½ cup heavy cream
Sea salt, as needed

• WHAT A JOKE

A week ago, my mother-in-law began reading The Exorcist. She said it was the most evil book she ever read. So evil, in fact, she couldn't finish it, took it over to the beach and threw it in the ocean off a fishing pier. I went and bought an-

Toppings

1 medium jalapeno pepper, thinly sliced

1 tbsp minced cilantro

Instructions

Heat the oil in a 5-quart cast iron Dutch oven over medium heat. Add the Rotel and taco seasoning and cook for 1 minute to toast the seasoning.

Add the chicken and broth, cover the Dutch oven, and simmer the mixture for 25 minutes or until the chicken's internal temp reaches 165 degrees. Remove the chicken, shred it and set aside.

Stir the cream cheese and heavy cream into the soup. If desired, blend the soup with an immersion blender for a creamier texture. Once the cheese has melted, add the chicken back to the soup. Season with salt and serve the soup topped with the jalapeno pepper and cilantro.

other copy, ran the faucet over it and left it in the night table drawer by her bed.

I'm definitely going to hell.
