Chargers lost in a tough matchup to open up the playoffs against the Ponies

The Charger BBB team lost to WAO in a tough contest last week, Thursday, March 9th, in Round 2 of the Section 8A BBB Tournament at NCTC.

Congratulations BBB players and coaches on a great season and for being the first Chargers BBB team to finish with a 20-win season.

Stats from the last game on Thursday, March 9th, at NCTC

WAO 74, Chargers 63

Stats - Blake Rychlock (13 pts, 11 reb), Spencer Coan (3 pts, 4 asst), Owen Larson (3 pts, 4 reb), Carson Rubischko (12 pts, 3 reb), Lewis Jones (25 pts, 9 reb), Russell Rian (5 pts, 4 reb), Gavin Aune (2 pts, 3 reb)

Coach's comments: The Chargers faced a tough matchup to open up the playoffs against the Ponies. It just wasn't our night. We did a lot of things well, but unfortunately we had our worst shooting night of the season and couldn't overcome it. A lot of credit goes to the Ponies - they defended us very well, executed on offense and deserved to move onto the next round. Our boys fought hard until the very last second like they always do.

We had a great fan turn-out and our team is very appreciative of all the support we received this season. Although the ending was disappointing, we accomplished so much and had such a great season. We have to say goodbye to an unbelievable group of seniors - Chase, Blake, Carson, Christian, Lewis, Spencer and Russell have contributed so much to our program and have always represented our communities with character and class. Their impact will be felt for some time!

Winter Sports Banquet set

The Chargers Winter Sports Banquet is scheduled for Monday, March 25th, at 6:30pm, at the Grygla Community Center. This is open to winter sports athletes, student managers, coaches, athletic directors, parents and families.

The banquet is being catered by the Grygla Lions Club. The dinner will consist of: chicken, fried rice, breadsticks, milk, water, punch, coffee, brownies, and other goodies. There is no charge for the athletes, student managers, coaches and athletic directors. Cost of the banquet for all others in attendance will be $10/plate for adults and $5/plate for all school age kids; kids under 5 are free.

You are encouraged to attend this wonderful event that recognized the hard work and achievements of our athletes!

Goodridge/Grygla Extracurricular Spring Celebration

The event is called "Charging Ahead" and it will be a social gathering for all of the Charger's extracurricular coaches, directors, advisors, etc. This special event is also open to businesspeople from both communities.

Grygla's Athletic Director, Jeff Mumm, says, "Grygla/Goodridge does it better than the rest!" He is coordinating this event to give himself and Mr. Tomas Loberg the opportunity to thank everyone for what they do in extracurricular activities and to everyone who does things behind the scenes that normally don't get recognized for what they do. "Without them, we wouldn't be regarded as such a great co-op," says Mumm.

He also shared that everyone has a busy life, yet we have so many people going above and beyond making sure our kids have a wonderful experience in the activity that they're in. "All of these people are here before school, after school, sitting on buses, all while taking time away from their families making sure each and every one of their kids in their resspected programs feels loved and valued," said Mr. Mumm.

The special event will be on Wednesday, May 15th, at The Hound in Grygla. A social hour will take place from 5-6pm. Appetizers will be served from 6-6:30pm, a welcome message from 6:30-6:45pm from Mr. Derek Gieseke, Mr. Tomas Loberg, Mr. Jeff Mumm and Ms. Becky Carlson. Guest speakers will take the stage from 6:45-7:30pm with the program running from 7:30-8pm.

This event will be a free-will offering with a raffle taking place.

This spring celebration is simply to get everyone together and be proud of what's being done and what deserves recognition. Communities are identified by their extracurricular activities. Mumm said that everyone involved in extracurricular activities are unsung heroes who provide guidance, motivation and inspiration for our kids. He added, "Showing appreciation and gratitude is essential in creating a positive atmosphere and fostering team spirit."

Only in Minnesota: a weekly feature in the Eagle

Here's the perfect weekend itinerary if you love exploring Minnesota's waterfalls

The Land of 10,000 Lakes is blessed with all manner of natural beauty, from the tallgrass prairies and Sioux quartzite of the southwest, the pristine lakes and aspen parklands in the north, as well as bogs, bluffs, and big, bold waterfalls in Minnesota. The fact of the matter is our state is blessed with natural bounty, and there is tons of nature to explore out there. It's almost overwhelming, really. So, let's start small and visit some of the most beautiful waterfalls in Minnesota. You can do it in a single weekend if you follow this itinerary.

This route along the North Shore is pretty short, but don't let that fool you. Across less than 200 miles, this trip is jam-packed with more than half a dozen falls in Minnesota. Between driving, hiking to the falls, and taking some time to enjoy the scenery, you'll have quite the busy weekend. The total driving time for this road trip is only about two and a half hours, but that doesn't include all the time you'll need to explore these Minnesota waterfalls. (Pictures go clockwise from the list.)

Gooseberry Falls, Two Harbors

This trip kicks things off with a stop at what might be Minnesota's most famous waterfall. It's located in Gooseberry Falls State Park, just a short hike down a trail near the parking lot. The great thing about Gooseberry Falls is that there are many other hiking trails that will take you to some lesser-known parts of this park. You'll definitely want to bring a camera for this one. It's a Minnesota classic.

Baptism River High Falls, Silver Bay

Next up, the High Falls of the Baptism River in Tettegouche State Park. From the parking lot, you'll find trails to not one, but three waterfalls in this state park. Seeing them all is certainly ideal, but if you're crunched for time, rush to the High Falls. At 60 feet high, this is the tallest waterfall contained entirely within Minnesota.

Illgen Falls, Silver Bay

Also in the Tettegouche area, Illgen Falls is a great quick stop along this trip. Just walk a few feet down a trail near Highway 61 to catch a glimpse of the Baptism River before it makes its way over the high falls. This is a great quick stop. So quick, in fact, that you can't not visit.

Cross River Falls, Schroeder

Drive about 30 minutes north on Highway 61 and you'll come to the next set of can't-miss waterfalls. The Cross River Falls is a smaller one, but that doesn't make it any less interesting. Fewer people visit this falls than more famous stops like Gooseberry, so you can expect a peaceful walk through nature to get to it. It's south of Temperance River State Park, just a couple miles down a trail accessed near Wayside Park in Schroeder.

Hidden Falls, Schroeder

Another one of the more famous falls on this trip, the falls along the Temperance River are quite the sight to see. There are a few waterfalls at the state park, but the Hidden Falls may be the most well-known. A trail along the gorge offers views of gorgeous rock formations, and a bridge over the falls allows for a picturesque view from above.

By now, all that trekking probably made you tired. Camping in any of the state parks is a great idea, or you can opt for a more luxurious retreat at one of the resorts near Lutsen. If you prefer a more relaxed approach, check into some of the amazing cabins near Grand Marais.

Upper Falls of the Brule River, Grand Marais

Get ready for some of the most beautiful waterfalls of the whole trip. The first stop is Judge C.R. Magney State Park, just north of downtown Grand Marais. Here, you'll find the Brule River as it crashes over jagged rock. You'll find it less than a mile from the parking lot, along the same trail that will take you to the Devil's Kettle.

Devil's Kettle, Grand Marais

As one of Minnesota's most famous - and most mysterious - natural wonders, the Devil's Kettle is an absolute must! And if you're already seeing the Upper Falls, you might as well continue on a little further to the Devil's Kettle. This strange attraction has eluded experts for years. Where exactly does the water go? Chances are, you won't solve the mystery. But it'll sure be an interesting sight.

High Falls of the Pigeon River, Grand Portage

Once you get your fill of the Brule River, if that's even possible, get back in the car for your last stop. About an hour up the road, Grand Portage State Park offers what may just be the most spectacular waterfall on the whole trip. At 120 feet high, the High Falls of the Pigeon River is the tallest waterfall located at least partially in Minnesota. If you've ever dreamt of seeing Niagara Falls but can't justify a trip to New York, this is your spot. The hike to the High Falls is only about half a mile, but if you're looking for a more rugged experience, try the five-mile trip to the Middle Falls.

These are just a handful of the stunning waterfalls in Minnesota. Be sure to make a plan to visit some of the other amazing Minnesota waterfalls in the Land of 10,000 Lakes.

What do you think? Does this sound like a road trip you may want to take someday?

What’s new at the Grygla School

The Grygla School Patrol made a fun trip to SouthTown Lanes last Friday for an afternoon filled with bowling and pizza. Photos courtesy of Grygla School

A High School Release Day was held on March 6th. The day started with Grygla students traveling to Goodridge to listen to Jay Ostgaard, a youth minister at Moe & Mesiah Lutheran churches and the Synod Appointed Minister at Salol First Lutheran Church. His message was about finding your purpose in life and following it through your faith journey, which coincided perfectly with the movie the Grygla students watched at Falls Cinema in the afternoon called, Ordinary Angels. The Goodridge High School kids watched the movie the following day at the theater. Falls Cinema set up pizza, popcorn and beverages for all the GG students! Photos courtesy of Ruth Anderson

There are thirty-four new Goodridge/Grygla Charger chairs that make up the home and visitor benches in the Grygla School Gymnasium.
