'Pack the Pews'

Submitted by Cheryl Sistad, Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf Chairmen This is the third year that the Grace Lutheran Church in Grygla is having a friendly competition between the "north side" and the "south side" of the pews to see who can "Pack the Pews" with the most food donations for the Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf. The competition runs the entire month of March and donations can be brought to the church on Sunday morning or during Wednesday night Lenten service. The Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf March campaign continues with a challenge to area churches to "Pack the Pews" with bags of donated non-perishable food items and we'd love to see pictures of your church pews packed with bags! (Food items can also be left at the Grygla Coop store.) The Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf is a non-profit organization operating under the 501 c (3) of the Grace Lutheran Church in Grygla and managed by a board of members, which include Cheryl Sistad, Shirley Holte, Juanita Watne, Pastor Vicki Saude-Worthington, Phyllis Neuschwander, Debra Loberg, Barb Lunsetter, Lon Englund, Lori Thompson and our two new members Mary Carlson and Carol Steuck. The Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf is currently participating in the Minnesota Food Share March Campaign. By doing so, we are eligible for matching funds based on the amount of funding and food donations we receive as compared to that raised by other food shelves. We urge everyone to join us in the "Pack the Pews" campaign to the Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf during the month of March to take advantage of this grant program. As always, monetary donations can be sent to the Grygla/Gatzke Food Shelf, 222 South Evelyn, P. O. Box 105, Grygla, MN 56727 or given to Lori Thompson, Treasurer.

Boys basketball season comes to an end

The Gast family cheered on Varsity Head Coach Mike Gast and the Chargers last Thursday night, March 9th, at Northland Community & Technical College. The Chargers beat EGF Sacred Heart 62-55 in the Sub-Section Quarter Finals. The highlight of the night was a surprise visit from Stella Gast, Mike's mom, who listens to every game faithfully on the radio. That night she cheered him on in person! With the win, the Chargers advanced to the sub-section semi-finals that were held at the Ralph Engelstad Arena on Saturday. The basketball season came to an end that afternoon when the Chargers lost to Stephen/Argyle Storm 47-70.

GRYGLA LIBRARY LINK

Written by Kari Sundberg, Grygla Librarian

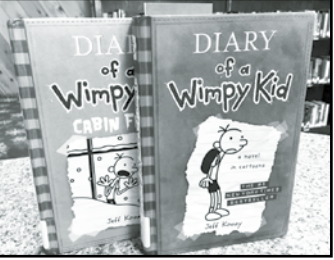

Let's do something different this week; let's be noseey and see what some of our patrons are reading! (SSSHHH!) Beth Wiseman's 'Daughters of the Promise' series:

On the rolling plains of Lancaster County, PA, a woman on the run turns to a lifestyle of simplicity among the Amish to find herself!

Jeff Kinney's 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid' series:

All books in the series are journals of the main character, Greg Heffley. Befitting a child's diary, the books are filled with hand-written notes and simple drawings of Greg's daily adventures.

C.J. Box pens a series that follows around Wyoming game warden Joe Pickett. Pickett takes on environmental terrorists, rogue federal land managers, animal mutilators, crazed cowboy hitmen and homicidal animal rights advocates, to name a few!

Parenthood is a TV drama series that tells of the Braverman clan, which comprises an older couple, their four children, and their families. The one-hour drama chronicles their lives through the joys and heartaches of Parenthood.

Do any of those strike your fancy? If not, come into the library this Wednesday from 2-6pm and let's see what we can find for you! New on the shelves this week includes non-fiction religious books; new next week is non-fiction how to's, including knitting, quilting, home design!

Ice fishing shelter removal dates approaching for northern Minnesota lakes

Ice anglers in northern Minnesota are reminded ice shelter removal dates are approaching for lakes located north of Highway 200 and U.S. Highway 2, according to the Department of Natural Resources. Because of rapidly deteriorating ice conditions, anglers may need to remove their shelters early and not wait for the deadline.

Dark houses, fish houses and portable shelters must be off the ice of inland lakes no later than midnight on Monday, March 20. For Minnesota-Canada border waters, the deadline for removal is March 31. Anglers are advised to remove shelters earlier if ice conditions warrant.

Enforcement action will be taken if shelters are left after the deadline. Anglers who don't remove their shelter can be prosecuted. Conservation officers may remove the structure and confiscate or dispose of it. It is also unlawful to store or leave a shelter at a public access.

"Ice conditions are changing rapidly during this early spring thaw and anglers should not wait until the removal deadline if conditions warrant early removal," said Capt. Tom Provost, DNR Enforcement Division. "Ice shelters and their contents left on a lake too long can become irretrievable and can end up as unwanted trash in our lakes."

Anglers should also remove any refuse or litter from the lake. Wood blocks used to support a shelter or any type of anchoring device need to be removed.

After removal dates, shelters may remain on the ice between midnight and one hour before sunrise only when occupied or attended.

It is unlawful to improperly dispose of ice fishing shacks anywhere in the state. Anglers should check with local refuse providers or landfills for disposal of unwanted items.

SIMPLY DELICIOUS

Made and “not yet cooked by” Kari Sundberg, Eagle Editor

Can you believe I didn’t try a new recipe this week and document it for you all to see? I know. Me either.

So I took to Pinterest and looked for a recipe that I probably would have made had I had the time. I picked “Philly Cheese Steak Sloppy Joes.”

Prep time 10 minutes, cook time 10 minutes. Done. Quick, easy and looks delicious. The recipe says it serves 6.

Ingredients:
1 tsp cornstarch
½ cup beef broth
2 tsp olive oil
1 small onion, diced
1 small green pepper, diced
1 lb. ground beef
2 tbsp ketchup
2 tbsp Worcestershire
2 tsp taco seasoning
¼ tsp salt
¼ tsp pepper
1.5 cups shredded Monterey Jack Cheese (or any white colored you prefer)
6 hamburger buns

Directions:
Preheat your broiler. In a small bowl, whisk together cornstarch and broth. Set aside. Heat the oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium. Add onion and peppers. Sauté 3 minutes until tender. Add in the beef and continue to cook, breaking it up and browning. Drain fat.

Stir in ketchup, Worcestershire, taco seasoning, salt and pepper. Give broth/cornstarch a quick stir and add to the skillet. Simmer for 3 minutes. Scoop mixture onto buns, top with cheese and stick under the broiler until melted, keeping a close eye on it so nothing burns! Take out, stick on the top bun and serve warm!

A HIPPIE’S HEALTH

Written by Tara Waltman

So a lot of you probably don’t know this but we have five pets. You can see them pictured (minus one). You know how hard it was to take that picture!? Hence missing one of them. Five pets can be a lot to take care of. You have to let the dogs out to go to the bathroom a few times throughout the day and the cats would like to go out, too, but they probably would not come back.

Our two cats grew up with dogs, so I honestly think that they think they are dogs. They come and greet us at the door when we come home like the dogs, and they stand at the door waiting for their turn when we let the dogs out. I love our pets, but I think five is enough. Even though, however, this past summer we went to a craft fair and there were Alpacas there; Everett asked if we could take one home. There was a baby Alpaca and it was so cute, but we would need a bigger yard to bring it home! If we did get one, I could then start knitting sweaters from their fur like a true hippie, though. If we get one, you know I’ll be writing an article about it for you all to read.

So, I wanted to talk a little bit about oils and pets. (I got a little carried away in talking about pets, but now comes the oils part.)

Most animals are more sensitive to essential oils than humans. So you want to make sure you dilute and use in moderation. You can dilute a young living essential oil with olive oil, coconut or another veggie oil. I have used coconut oil and olive oil. We diffuse Young Living lavender essential oil during storms to having a calming effect for our dogs, especially our Golden, who is afraid of

A Note from Principal Lunsetter’s Desk

“People often say that motivation doesn’t last. Well, neither does bathing. That’s why we recommend it daily.”
~ Zig Ziglar

What a great quote! We forget sometimes that we are in a constant state of practicing. Developing a positive attitude, like everything else in life, requires practice most of the time. That’s why it’s important to surround yourself with people who are going to be positive influences...not head-nodders, but people who are able to disagree, or work through negative circumstances and stay positive. It’s important to fill our minds with positive thoughts, because if and when we don’t, the world becomes a dark place. Practice positivity. Move forward in a positive direction. Don’t succumb to failure, instead make it a learning opportunity. Practice maintaining a positive attitude even in the middle of the storm.

Taking 4th place for the Grygla Elementary Intramural season was the “Dingle Dwarfs” team. Front row, L-R: Callie Loken, Hunter Vad, Taylor McManus, Ava Sorvig and Cheyenne Mickelson. Back row, L-R: Brody Saurdiff, Sheldin Sundberg and Emily Carlson. The students played every Friday from 1:30-3:30 beginning the middle of January. Coaches Comments: This was a tough loss! The kids played very hard, but things didn't go our way. We didn't execute our offense or shoot very well. The effort was there and I'm very proud of the players. Stephen-Argyle played better than we did. They have a very good team and deserved to win, however, we felt we would beat them. It wasn't our night. We didn't win, but the kids are winners. I'm very proud to have been their coach! I love them all! Our seniors were awesome all year! They were great leaders and great kids! I will miss them very much! It was a great year! Getting 20 wins is a fantastic accomplishment for them!
