MCINTOSH TRACTOR DAY 2020

A huge "Thank You" to everyone who came to our McIntosh Tractor Day Activities.

To all the parade drivers (were told 94 tractors), to all who participated in the tractor pulls, to the 4 different food vendors who had all different food available (and we were told they all sold out!) To all the helpers who worked so hard to keep everything moving smoothly in both the parade and pull, and to our fabulous announcer, Carey Burslie who always does an amazing job.

Thank you to the children from "The Clubhouse Daycare" for leading the parade. To the Polar Bear Snowmobile Club for having the "Kiddy Pull" and to the hundreds who came to watch and cheer for the drivers! But most of all to the 94+ drivers who brought their beauties to show them off and for all of us to enjoy!

Thank you also to the McIntosh Firemen for their helping with so many things and to Curtis Bartz with spending your whole day working at the Tractor Pull.

To Everyone Thank You!"

We are already looking to & working on year #14.

Exposing myths about ultraviolet light

Ultraviolet light is all around us. UV light is a type of electromagnetic radiation that does anything from causing sunburns to making black-light posters glow. The sun is a notable source of ultraviolet radiation, but lamps and some items like arc welding torches also can transmit it.

UV rays fall in the middle of other types of radiation, ranging from very high-energy like X-rays and gamma rays to low-energy radiation, such as radio waves. UV rays are divided into three main groups: UVA rays, UVB rays and UVC rays, advises the American Cancer Society. Even though UV rays are so common, many people remain unaware of the dangers associated with UV exposure.

True or False: Age makes people more vulnerable to UV exposure and damage to the eyes and skin.

True. The Canadian Association of Optometrists says an estimated 50 percent of lifetime exposure to UV rays occurs before age 18. This is because youngsters tend to spend more time outdoors, have larger pupils, have clearer lenses, and are less likely to wear sunglasses or hats.

True or False: All UV rays are equally damaging.

False: UVA rays are the least powerful, but have the potential to cause premature skin damage and increase the risk of certain eye conditions. UVB rays are more damaging because they give off more energy and are responsible for most skin cancers. UVC rays do not penetrate the atmosphere.
