RLC Boys Basketball team volunteered to help at State Special Olympics Bowling Tournament

Nick Suchy helping throw the ball.

Benji Bramer, Parker Klasen, Luke Peterson, and Owen Chervestad were excited for the fun day!

The Red Lake County Boys Basketball team volunteered a full day at the Southtown Bowl in Thief River Falls on Friday November 22 to help with the State Special Olympics Bowling Tournament. Twenty-six boys and 3 coaches helped monitor lanes, cheer on the bowlers, run the Special Olympics store, and prepare the bowlers for competition.

There were around 45 Special Olympians from around the state and they were extremely happy to have the team help out, give them high 5's, fist bumps, hugs, and hand shakes. It was a great day and the RLC Rebels team is to be commended for how impressive their behavior and kindness was toward these "Special" Olympians!

Garnes Go Getters selling handmade Christmas ornaments at Santa Day, December 7th

The Garnes Go-Getters 4-H club of Oklee will be selling handmade Christmas ornaments at the Oklee Santa Claus day on Dec. 7th from 9:00am-11:00am at the Oklee Community Hall.

The Garnes Go-Getters are trying to raise money to take all the club members and their families to the 2025 Minnesota State Fair. Club members in grades 6-12 have the chance to go to the state fair each year but the costs are still high just to be at the fair.

Our club consists of 12 members in grades 4th-11th and we'd like to give all the kids the opportunity to experience the state fair.

Garnes Go-Getter members will be around the area doing some fundraisers, they were busy with bake sales this summer and we just got done doing a T-Shirt fundraiser so if you see the Garnes Go-Getters around please consider helping them out or making a donation to the club, we greatly appreciate your support.

A Thanksgiving message from Senator Amy Klobuchar

This week, families across our state are gathering to spend quality time together, give thanks, and, of course, eat some delicious Minnesota-raised turkey.

We all know we live in divided times. But this Thanksgiving, I'm thankful for the fact that what unites us as Minnesotans is far greater than what divides us:

We respect the dignity of work and the simple idea that our family members, friends, and neighbors should be able to afford a house or apartment, health care, and for our seniors, a quality place to live out their lives.

We want our kids to succeed. We want them to get the education they need — whether it's a strong high school education followed by a job, a one- or two-year degree, a four-year degree, or an apprenticeship — to find careers they love.

We support the men and women who keep us safe — we want them to have the training and equipment to do their jobs, and the health care and benefits they've earned. And we want them to know we are always grateful for their service.

And we share a love for our country, our state, our democracy, and the promise of the American dream.

Thanksgiving first became a national holiday in the middle of the Civil War, when President Lincoln called on all Americans to heal their divisions and restore "peace, harmony, tranquility and Union." More than 160 years later, that call for unity rings as true as ever.

Our state and our country are at their best not when we tear each other down, but when we build each other up and cross the river of our divides. So today, let's remind ourselves and our families that the path to higher ground begins with finding common ground.

Happy Thanksgiving, Minnesota. May your holiday be filled with joy, togetherness, and a little extra whipped cream on your pumpkin pie.

We have our first snow. It isn't too welcome yet, because it represents work but no fun. A few more inches, and the story becomes fun with snowmobiles and skis.

Thanksgiving is here and we have so much to be thankful for. In years to come we will look back and say I just missed the boat, I should have been more thankful for all I had back then. I know that sometimes I have to repair my thankfulness to God for what I had in a pinch time. We all have those times, when a pinch is all you have. and you make do with that

So Thank your maker for what you have and for goodness sake stop blaming someone else for what you don't have, that does no good for anyone.

The talk at the table was started by Joyce Morinville and Deb Champagne this week, and they had a great deal of fun making holiday door decorations in Plummer. They showed us pictures of a lot of our friends who also took part in this activity. They were invited to this event and they brought their containers for all the decorating they did, and the end result was really stunning. This was an article that stands next to your door to greet your guests upon entering your home. Nonetheless these two girls had a great lots of fun by going to this activity.

Clarence and Dianne Gagner and Leroy and Joyce Christensen of Red Lake Falls, went to Battle Lake to celebrate the birthdays of Katelyn who is 10, and Nolan who is 9, the children of Tyler and Lynn Gagner, and great-grand children of Clarence, Dianne Joyce, and Leroy. Other guests at this birthday party were, Tim and Brenda Gagner of Vergas, Trent and Ryker Gagner of Alexandria, Britany and Mitch Gagner and family of Marshall, Minnesota, Bonnie and Arlan Herbranson of Battle Lake, and Erin and Jim of Minneapolis. All of the Gagner great -grand children were there together so there were many pictures of the kids and the fun they were having. Happy Birthday to Katelyn and Nolan.

Be careful in your travels this weekend as so many are traveling to and fro for the holiday. It seems like more and more are on the roads these days. A lot of the traveling has to do with sports and school. This weekend seems to be like they let out the asylum for a free day, and some of those driving show that in their execution on the road. Put the phone away, don't drink, and don't take drugs. We all may be safe while driving.

Happy Thanksgiving to all and make sure to thank the cook too.

Dates To Remember

Wednesday: Cards at 1:30 p.m. If you would like to come play cards, come on in and enjoy some fun game time visiting with your fellow seniors.

Once the new Senior Site is up and running, the hope is that more people would like to use the room for events. Maybe even start a new group of card/game players on a different day.

Senior Site Meeting

The next Senior Site meeting will be on Tuesday, December 17th and it will be held at the Senior Site at 2 p.m.

Have a great week!

On Wednesday night at Bingo, at the Legion, Leo Schmitz treated to meat & cheese on crackers, herring, pickles, and cake, which he'd baked for his birthday. It was very good.

Thursday, Anna DeHate, Karen Tvedt, and Alice Jobe went to the Cozy for Potato Klub and side pork with dessert. They had a good crowd.

Thursday afternoon, Anna DeHate, Sandy Greenwald, and Alice Jobe met at the Community Hall for Senior Citizens. They enjoyed a lunch of crackers, cheese, meat and pickles, and apple crisp and coffee. They played a game of Skipbo for fun.

So far, I've missed snow accumulation, but it will be coming later. However, it sounds like we may not have a lot of snow. But be prepared for it with winter things in the car, enough gas in the car and you have enough propane or fuel oil to keep your home warm.

Have a good week.
